Flag-draped caskets, which contain the bodies of the first of California's hero dead to be removed from their A. E. F. graves in Northern France to home soil. The caskets are now at the Oakland Mole awaiting shipment to their various destinations. PRIVATE ALBERT M. MEN-
DENGHAL and SELECIA SANTI, both overseas veterans and members of Troop F, Eleventh Cavalry, stationed at the Presidio, are standing guard over the caskets.

Hero Dead of State Come Home Legion Men Greet Lost Comrades

As a tribute to the bravery of the American soldiers, the following in French is written on one of the caskets which arrived today:
"To the soldier who fought like a tiger and who never was afraid, the land of France pays his gratitude."
An inscription in German, evidently made by prisoners of war, who helped to remove the bodies, translated, reads:
"Our enemy, yet we respect him as a soldier who never surrenders."

With the complete confession made to the police by Edward Collins, 1018 Fillmore street, San Francisco, leader of the robber gang which looted the residence of Joseph F. Carlston in the Fruitvale foothills last Friday night, the police stated today that the case was practically closed.

The confession, which was made to Inspectors Richard McSorley and Frank Ross, and which the police have not yet given out, is his insistence on the fact that there were only three, and not six, robbers in the gang. The police are inclined to believe that the confession is true, and are waiting for the results of an investigation of the case points out that Collins in his confession "came clean."

Collins is emphatic in his denial that the third man arrested Sunday night as a suspect in the case, had anything to do with the crime. He will probably be released this morning.

The second robber in jail, Leo Brennan, 1438 Ellis street, San Francisco, did not participate in the confession, but made no denial this morning of the statement made by Collins.

POLICE ON TRAIL OF THIRD ROBBER

The third robber, still uncaptured, today is being sought by the police, who say they have definite information concerning who he is and where he can be found.

This information, the police say, was not gained from Collins, who steadfastly maintained that he did not know the identity of the third accomplice.

The arrest of the last member of the daring criminal organization is expected today, according to the police.

CAR LACKING, SO LOOT IS CACHED

"And we had no car," said Collins to the inspectors this morning. "That is pure poppycock. Why, you are detectives and can see that if we had had a car we would not have stopped and cached the swag right near the place. We would have made tracks for distant parts and don't you forget it."

The police believe this is true and that the story of the Japanese concerning the car used by the robbers is fiction.

Collins said, when asked why he had picked the Carlston home as the place to loot, that he was the object for the operations of his gang that he had had the house spotted for some time.

"It was a nice, quiet place to rob, and it seemed a shame not to do it," said Collins.

"We started out to rob it twice before, but the chance did not present itself," he continued. "Once we had a car we would not have stopped and cached the swag right near the place. We would have made tracks for distant parts and don't you forget it."

The night we pulled the job the man came out to turn off a water sprinkler on the lawn, and then we hid behind some shrubbery and waited for the Japanese servant to come out so we could nail him, but he didn't show up.

Flames Sweep Whole Square In Marysville

Loss Estimated at Quarter of Million; Fire Starts
in Garage

MARYSVILLE, Cal., July 21.—Fire swept a business block here this morning, causing damage estimated at $250,000.

Starting from an unknown cause in the garage of Fred S. Moore, the flames rapidly enveloped surrounding buildings and stores in the business section.

Fire fighters succeeded in confining the blaze to the block in Second street bounded by Oak and C streets. Concerning which suffered and their losses follow:

Ideal Cloth Shop, $50,000.
T. & M. Mercantile company, $50,000.
Herman's meat market, $30,000.
Fred S. Moore's garage, $20,000.
Roaming house conducted by Thomas Lee, $50,000.
Other places were damaged slightly.

Caskets Carry Tributes From Friend and Foe

Armed Guards to Accompany
Each Body to Final Place of Interment

Draped with huge American flags, six bodies, the first of California's war dead to be returned home, lie in their caskets at the mole Red Cross Hospital. The bodies were scheduled to arrive at 1:35 this afternoon, but arrived several hours ahead of time.

Representatives of Oakland Post No. 5 of the American Legion communicated with the commandant at the San Francisco Presidio, and took the bodies in charge. They will remain at the mole until each casket can be shipped to its destination, accompanied by an armed guard.

GASKETS DRAPED WITH STARS AND STRIPES

Each casket was draped with an American flag. A plate on the casket gives the name of the deceased, his nearest relative, the army serial number, the number of the plot and grave from which the body was taken in France and the name of the person to whom the body is being shipped.

Two of the caskets bear inscriptions made by both German and French soldiers. The inscription in French was evidently made by a poilu who accompanied the body from its grave in Northern France to the port of embarkation. The other inscription, in German, was likely made by prisoners of war who helped in the work of removing the bodies. The second inscription is signed by Hans Meyer and August Dietrich.

Three of the bodies are to be buried in San Francisco, the others will go to Los Angeles, Salinas and Orange, respectively.

SIX BODIES IN FIRST ARRIVALS

Following is a list of the bodies, with rank and organization, and name of the nearest relative:

MERLE N. GREGORY, sergeant, Company C, 68th Engineers; Mrs. S. Gregory, 1129 Hearst building, San Francisco.

ELMER F. IRWIN, private first class, Company A, 34th Infantry; James A. Irwin, 20 Sadowa street, San Francisco.

ORRIN J. LEWIS, cook, Company D, 36th Infantry; Mrs. William H. Wiley, 729 Twelfth avenue, San Francisco.

AGUST A. ALPHEIDE, private, Company G, 165th Infantry; Fred Alpheide, Orange.

FITZGERALD L. KLING, private, Second Ordnance Reinforcement Detachment; Frank Kling, Los Angeles.

SAREN CADASCI, private, Co. M, 36th Infantry; Mrs. H. M. Bonney, Salinas.

Police Are Baffled By Third Murder

SAN DIEGO, July 21.—The third mysterious murder in two weeks came to light here today with the finding of the nude body of a man in the surf at Coronado. Tattoo marks on the body were removed before the man was cast into the waves.

A week ago a nude body was found in the bay. It was apparently a murder case, but the man has not been identified.

The second tragedy was discovered with the finding of the body of an unidentified woman in the sands of the San Diego river. The police are still baffled by this case as the third comes to light.

Chief Fined For Withholding News From Reporters

CLEVELAND, O., July 21.—Police Chief F. W. Smith was found guilty of contempt of court and fined $100 by Judge Levine in common pleas court this morning. Judge Levine held the chief guilty of failing to observe the court's injunction ordering him to open all police records to reporters for the Cleveland News. Enforcement of the fine was withheld until the case is finally disposed of on its merits. Chief Smith denied he had issued orders denying News reporters access to the records. He said he had asked subordinates not to give out interviews to the paper's representatives because of alleged distortion and exaggeration.

Missing Girl Is Stolen in Auto, Screams Heard

Woman Guest at Fairmont,
Owner of the Machine,
Denies Knowledge

SAN FRANCISCO, July 21.—The police are today searching San Francisco for Ivy Shane, 12-year-old daughter of Louis Shane, proprietor of a hotel at 14 Valencia street, who, while searching for his daughter after she had disappeared from home last night, was startled early this morning by two screams, which he believed to be his daughter's. The girl, from an enclosed touring car which sped past him.

Shane said the car bore license number 98-081, which had been under the name of Mrs. E. Merritt of the Fairmont hotel. The machine was in the garage this morning. Mrs. Merritt said she did not know where her daughter was and is making every effort to locate her. She gave an explanation. The police believe the car was stolen by kidnapers, and later returned to the garage.

"The police believe this is true and that the story of the Japanese concerning the car used by the robbers is fiction."

Collins said, when asked why he had picked the Carlston home as the place to loot, that he was the object for the operations of his gang that he had had the house spotted for some time.

LONDON, July 21.—Lord d'Abernon, the British ambassador to Germany, has gone to Warsaw from Berlin upon orders from his government. Premier Lloyd George announced in Commons this afternoon. He said that Marshal Poch may go to Warsaw later.

PARIS, July 21.—Upon the urgent advice of French military experts, all American relief workers in Poland have been ordered to be ready to leave the country on an hour's notice. It was learned this afternoon.

LONDON, July 21.—The Allies are determined to arrest the destruction of Poland by the Russian Bolsheviks. Premier Lloyd George announced in the House of Commons this afternoon.

The premier characterized the Soviet's reply to the British armistice proposals as an indication of their unwillingness for peace.

LONDON, July 21.—The Soviet government at Moscow has refused the entente's proposal for an armistice and peace with Poland, according to a Russian wireless despatch given out by the British government this afternoon.

Premier Lloyd George said the Soviet's unwillingness to negotiate direct with Poland.

POLAND IS TOLD TO DEAL DIRECT

The British government is said to be urging Warsaw to deal for itself with the Russian Bolsheviks, and which the Polish government is said to be urging Warsaw to deal with Moscow and to seek an immediate armistice. The Moscow government, in its recent note to the British government, is said by the Daily Express to have offered an extension of old Poland's boundaries.

GERMANY FEARS RED INVASION

PARIS, July 21.—Germany today requested permission for the allies to carry out a large body of troops on the Baltic coast near Memel to resist any attempted invasion of Prussia by General Brusiloff's Bolshevik army, it was learned from an authoritative source. The Germans profess fears of invasion by the Russian army which is crossing northern Poland. Memel lies near the border of Latvia, but was taken from Germany by the peace conference.

BOTH SIDES CHARGE CRIMES TO JEWS

LONDON, July 21.—(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)—Charges that the Poles, retreating before the Bolsheviks, carried out numerous pogroms and perpetrated atrocities of the gravest nature upon members of the Jewish population are contained in an official Bolshevik wireless message received here today. From Warsaw the correspondent of the agency announced that representatives of Jewish organizations there have claims recognized as those of the council for the purpose of aiding and co-operating with the Polish military authorities.

Board Grants Audience to Heads of Brotherhoods and Declares That Reopening of Wage Scale Is Impracticable

Groups of Shop Craftsmen,
Whose Increase Takes Pay
to 85 Cents an Hour, Quit
Work and Become 'Outlaws'

CHICAGO, July 21.—The request by a committee of the sixteen railway brotherhoods made to the United States railroad labor board this afternoon for a rehearing of the wage award made public yesterday, was denied by the wage board.

The board announced after the meeting that a reopening of the wage hearing was impracticable.

An audience to the union heads to present a request for the rehearing had been granted by vote of the board, after the request of the men had been submitted to Judge R. M. Barton, chairman of the body.

MEMBER FORECASTS REHEARING DENIAL

One member of the board had stated it was his opinion that any request for a rehearing at this time in connection with the award would be denied.

Meanwhile other groups of workers answered the award by quitting work. These groups were the most part shop craftsmen, whose increase of 13 cents an hour brought their wage up to 85 cents an hour. With this they were dissatisfied.

"OUTLAW" SHOPS

The first of these group walkouts was at the Elston shop of the Grand Trunk railroad, where, according to reports at the "outlaw" headquarters, 900 shop craftsmen went out.

The shop management, however, declared that only 180 men had gone out and these were members of the Grand Trunk Association, an "outlaw" yardmen's association.

DECLARE WALKOUT

The shop management, however, declared that only 180 men had gone out and these were members of the Grand Trunk Association, an "outlaw" yardmen's association.

RETRIBUTIVE WAGE LESSON'S DISAPPOINTMENT

CHICAGO, July 21.—(By the Associated Press.)—The railroad strike apparently had dissipated when the 2000 representatives of the "outlaw" yardmen's association met here today for a conference to consider the $600,000,000 wage increase granted by the railway labor board yesterday.

The strike was less than expected, and the part of the union men, and a desire for a peaceful solution of their problem was manifest.

A factor which many believe may have considerable effect on a concerted effort is made toward acceptance of award was the board's decision to make the increase retroactive to May 1. The board would give the 1,300,000 railway workers a total of approximately $150,000,000 to be distributed as back pay in lump sums.

It was reported that the locomotive engineers and shopmen had expressed themselves as favorable to acceptance of the decision.

FREIGHT PASSENGER RATES TO INCREASE

WASHINGTON, July 21.—(By International News Service.)—Increased wages granted railroad workers by the Railroad Labor Board must be met by increased freight and passenger rates, according to recommendations drawn here today by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Benjamin Campbell of the New Haven system stated this afternoon. Recommendation of the committee will be laid before the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Increases that will be asked and the proportionate increase of freight and passenger rates has not been determined, Campbell said.

NOOSE TO END MOSE GIBSON'S CRIME CAREER

SANTA ANA, July 21.—Mose Gibson, negro confessed slayer of Roy Trapp, wealthy Fullerton, Cal., rancher, was today sentenced to be hanged at San Quentin September 24 by Superior Judge Williams before whom the negro appeared early this morning to plead a plea of guilty of murder in the first degree.

Gibson was taken secretly from the Los Angeles county jail before daylight today and brought into the courtroom here without it being known to any save court attaches. He will be taken at once to San Quentin to await execution as payment of his heinous crimes.

Gibson is guilty not alone of the murder of Trapp, but of the serious wounding and criminal assault of Trapp's beautiful wife and of a murder committed in Louisiana ten years ago and many other brutal crimes, according to his own confession.

Ole Hanson Testifies In Communist Trial

CHICAGO, July 21.—Intimidates of Seattle's strike in 1918 and the attempt to overthrow the city government were to be related today by Ole Hanson, former mayor of Seattle, testifying against twenty alleged members of the Communist Labor party on trial here.

Hanson testifying yesterday, said he attended a mass meeting of agitators in Seattle, when the use of bullets in overthrowing the city administration was advocated.

"They were greatly pleased to learn of the death of Theodore Roosevelt," Hanson said.

Irish Freedom Is Intimated by Britain's Peers

Scheme Hinted Would Allow Unionists, Sinn Feiners to Fight It Out

LONDON, July 21.—A proposal for virtual independence for Ireland, with a provision against interference of any foreign government in Irish affairs, was understood to be under consideration by the British cabinet today. This proposal included withdrawal of every vestige of British military authority.

Under this scheme Great Britain would not recognize Irish independence but such independence would become an actual fact. At the same time the British government would make formal announcement that recognition of the Irish republic by any foreign government would be considered an unfriendly act.

In some quarters it was stated the plan means cutting away of all British official moorings from Ireland, leaving the island to sink or swim. It was believed that if the military was withdrawn and ammunition left in Ulster, Unionists would be able to defend themselves against aggressions of the Sinn Fein.

Ulster would establish its own parliament and a government which would continue relations with the British empire.

Law and other hand Andrew Bonar Law and other British government officials intimate that measures are under consideration for strengthening the present British legal and official structure in Ireland.

ATTORNEYS CLASH AT HEARING OF SYNDICALIST CASE

Coming as a belated echo of the syndicalist trials of last winter in Oakland, the case of Preston Coward, arrested November 22, 1919, on a charge of violating the criminal syndicalism law, came up for preliminary hearing this morning in the police court of Judge George Coward.

Coward was arrested by Inspectors Fenton Thompson and William Kyle during a police raid on the headquarters of the "World," a Socialist newspaper formerly published in Oakland.

Acting in the capacity of counsel for the defense this morning was J. E. Snyder, former editor of the "World," who was charged with the suppression of the paper and an alleged violation of the espionage law.

Coward on the stand admitted that he had acted in the capacity of circulation manager for the "World" for several years and had assisted in circulating many thousand copies.

CLASHES FREQUENT

The hearing was marked this morning by repeated clashes between Prosecuting Attorney William J. Hennessy and Snyder.

"It is true that a policeman can stop the publication of a newspaper by an arbitrary decision and act as censor on the matter contained in its columns when that paper is being accepted, and has for years been accepted by the government of the United States in its mails as a legitimate newspaper, then Oakland is the only city in the country where that condition exists," said Snyder.

"Then hush for Oakland," it shows we have some live ones here on the police force," said Hennessy.

Attorney Hennessy, "but I object to this speech on the part of the counsel for the defense as entirely irrelevant and immaterial."

The objection was sustained.

"The sole issue before the court," said Judge Samuel, "is to determine whether or not the matter contained in these papers was seditious and in violation of the law which makes it a crime to spread in any manner the philosophy of violence and sabotage in order to bring about a social reconstruction."

Snyder introduced several copies of the "World" as evidence in the case.

"I hope you will read these carefully," said Snyder.

"I am not asking me to read them as propaganda," replied the judge.

"Well, read them any way," said Snyder, "because I am convinced that a great injustice is being done in the suppression of any newspaper and that in this case a dangerous precedent has been established."

The case was continued until July 31.

Exclusion Law Is Favored By Chinese

SAN FRANCISCO, July 21.—(By the Associated Press)—K. K. Kawakami, Japanese author and publicist, told the committee of the House of Representatives today that the Chinese and Americans are unassimilable races from the marriage angle and the exclusion act should be kept in force, since the Chinese Chamber of Commerce in a letter to the congressional committee on naturalization.

"We do not ask the abandonment of the Chinese exclusion law," the letter continues, "for we feel that it is not directed against the Chinese nation, but is based upon the desire for which you conceive to be for the ultimate good and welfare of your own country." The letter adds the Chinese exclusion law has firmly established a great principle of international law based upon the protection of the law of self-preservation and predicts that China might, in the not far distant future, adopt such a law for protection against an encroaching people.

Japanese Oust Service Men From Work, Probers Told

FRESNO, Cal., July 21.—Japanese are killing jobs that Americans held before they left for the world war and that the service men would like to have now, according to testimony before two members of the House immigration committee here today.

Charles Perry Taylor, district organizer of the American Federation of Labor, testified before Chairman Albert Johnson and Congressman Siegel, giving the names of men who, he said, were displaced by Japanese.

Japanese have been able to circumvent the California anti-alien land law around Fresno through their Japanese selling as trustees for minor American-born Japanese children, Congressman H. E. Barbours said.

Mayor W. F. Toomey said straw-berry culture in this locality was largely in the hands of Japanese who leased from corporations composed of their own countrymen and "unpatriotic Americans."

RACE FEELING TOUCHED

This was the cause of considerable feeling, he declared.

"Then the trouble is mostly with your own citizens," said Representative Siegel.

Charles P. Taylor, international organizer for the American Federation of Labor, stated that at Tullock a number of returned soldiers had been refused work because Japanese labor was cheaper.

According to Mayor Toomey, there was considerable feeling here against Japanese, and a more kindly attitude toward the local Mexican colony of 2000.

"Then it is the same old story again of race feeling toward Orientals," declared Chairman Johnson.

Dan P. Daggett, president of the Fresno Labor Council, said Japanese were doing considerable contracting here for their own countrymen, and that Americans in the building trades were unable to compete with them.

LAND CONTROL TOLD

E. A. Williams testified that he was attorney for several Japanese corporations. Landholdings in Fresno, Madera and Merced counties by these companies, of which there were seventy-eight, amounted to 9,479 acres, the witness stated. Leases by these corporations covered 353 acres more, he said. He said Japanese owned about 5,000 acres in Fresno county as about 5,000.

K. K. Kawakami, president of the Japanese Association of Fresno county, told the committee he was a merchant, an exporter of automobile supplies to Japan, the owner of 640 acres of vineyard, and was satisfied with the "gentlemen's agreement" between the two nations.

"Race feeling is due to lack of understanding," he said. Kawakami expressed his desire to become an American citizen.

The hearing, which was partly informal, was adjourned at the end of two hours to enable the congressional party to make an early start for Livingston, Delhi and Tullock.

AUTHOR IS QUIZZED

SAN FRANCISCO, July 21.—(By the Associated Press)—K. K. Kawakami, Japanese author and publicist, told the committee of the House of Representatives today that the Chinese and Americans are unassimilable races from the marriage angle and the exclusion act should be kept in force, since the Chinese Chamber of Commerce in a letter to the congressional committee on naturalization.

"We do not ask the abandonment of the Chinese exclusion law," the letter continues, "for we feel that it is not directed against the Chinese nation, but is based upon the desire for which you conceive to be for the ultimate good and welfare of your own country." The letter adds the Chinese exclusion law has firmly established a great principle of international law based upon the protection of the law of self-preservation and predicts that China might, in the not far distant future, adopt such a law for protection against an encroaching people.

JOURNALISTS TO MEET

HELENA, Mont., July 21.—Montana's State Press association holds its 1920 meeting here July 29-31. A. L. Stone, Missoula, dean of the department of journalism of the University of Montana, is president.

AMERICAN SLOOP TAKES FIRST OF RACES FOR CUP

They were hauling away for the Jersey shore.

Resolute worked out about 100 yards to windward, but Shamrock was footing faster and was well ahead. It looked as if Shamrock could cross the defender's bow.

CHALLENGE IS WELL AHEAD

At 1:40 Shamrock was well ahead of Resolute and it seemed as if she could cross the defender's bow if she were not for the fact that Resolute was a margin of several hundred yards in crossing.

Shamrock, with her Seabright pilot aboard, was evidently holding inshore for a fair breeze.

At 1:52 Shamrock tacked out to sea.

Resolute held on to the port tack and the two yachts began to converge. Then Resolute managed to cross Shamrock's bow at 1:55 and then tacked to starboard.

Resolute tacked to port a minute later, but came about and established herself on Shamrock's weather port.

Resolute was leading by 100 yards. As the two sloops stood inshore Shamrock again endeavored by footing to fore to reach her rival, but Captain Adams kept Resolute higher into the wind and ate further out to sea. Both yachts seemed to lose speed as they shot under the lee of shore.

At 2:05 Resolute was leading by 200 yards and the wind had breezed up to six knots.

Working down for the Shesapeake gas buoy, Skipper Burton broke out a tiny jib tassel hardly larger than a pin, and the two yachts were on a starboard tack and approached Resolute, which was working inshore on a port tack.

As the yachts approached the Cape Cod Race Committee, Resolute over on the starboard tack whereupon Shamrock came about again on the port.

Boat for boat, it was a tight race. With the advantage so far lying with Resolute which crossed the line 13 seconds behind the challenger and now was leading by probably ten seconds at this point.

AMERICAN YACHT LENGTHEN'S LEAD

Resolute went about at 2:05 and both yachts stood inshore, making a pretty thrust to windward along the shore. The challenger, the Jersey, headed the starboard tack, and Resolute at 2:06 with Resolute still leading.

With more than half the course to the outer mark covered at 2:15, it was estimated by newspaper men on the destroyer following the sloops that Resolute was leading by a quarter mile.

When at 2:35 the yachts were over on the starboard tack, and stood away out to sea, Resolute was leading a bit to weather from the challenger. The wind was making about seven to eight knots.

At 2:53 the yachts headed for the mark.

Rounding the outer mark one minute and 45 seconds ahead of Resolute today to resume their protest over her spinnaker in a minute and 40 seconds. Shamrock's crew took two minutes and five seconds to boom out their spinnaker. The elapsed time was 2 minutes and 22 seconds, computed unofficially.

Resolute, 2:20.40, Shamrock, 2:22.44.

RESOLUTE HAD SOME ADVANTAGE

In elapsed time, therefore, Resolute had an advantage of two minutes and four seconds in beginning the second and last leg, plus a time allowance of seven minutes and one second, which the challenger must give her.

A mile after the turn both yachts broke out balloons. Resolute seemed covered with bulging canvas.

At 3:15 Resolute was half a mile ahead of Shamrock and the challenger seemed unable to draw by her. At this time the yachts had sailed about 5 miles of the 15-mile run home, or about 20 miles of the entire course.

Husband Says Wife Fond of 'Boys,' She Returns Charges

Charges of improprieties on the part of both husband and wife are made in the divorce battle of Harold Mabrey and his wife, Mrs. Mabrey, the trial of which began before Superior Judge T. W. Harris today.

Mabrey charges that on one occasion when they were residing in Oregon in 1919, he found his wife in the arms of another man, kissing and caressing him, and that she and her companion, on being confronted, both confessed, and Mrs. Mabrey declared she no longer loved her husband. He also charges that she smoked cigarettes and visited roadhouses, where she drank liquor and danced until a late hour.

At Oakland, Mabrey is the father of the plaintiff and supervising principal of the public schools at Los Gatos, declares that he called unexpectedly one morning at the home of his son, 3271 Garfield avenue, Alameda, when the latter was absent and found one Oscar Rayan emerging from the bedroom with his coat, vest and collar of J. W. Forrest's affidavit said that on an automobile trip Mrs. Mabrey slapped her husband's face when he opened the "cut-out" and that he had seen her smile at children.

Mrs. Mabrey says her husband lost his position in a school in Mapleton, Ore., following charges that he took liberties with a girl student and that once at a party he insisted on kissing every woman present and chased one woman a block and forcibly kissed her on overtaking her. They were married on Christmas, 1912, and have one child, a girl, three years old.

Claiming that George M. Whitcomb has struck and pinched her on many occasions in their home at 1421 Alameda, Berkeley, and that he constantly nagged her, called her lazy and suggested that she had nothing to do on should earn her own living, Mrs. Mabrey has filed a suit for divorce.

They were married in Oakland on February 8, 1918.

That William F. Parker has often called her wife's name before her children, Mrs. Parker declares that they have property consisting of the home at 3235 Elsie street, cash in bank and personal property, and she asks for a fair division of the 45 percent her husband from disposing of it. Also that she be given half of it.

tions in the divorce complaint of Mrs. Aubrey B. Turner, that her husband, James W. Turner, told her she was "not the mother of his child," is contained in Turner's answer and cross complaint which declares that the child in question is not theirs but an adopted daughter. The Turners married in 1894 and separated in 1912. Mrs. Turner charged cruelty. Setting forth that her divorced husband, George Richardson, has failed to pay half the support of her daughter, Matilda Wayman has filed suit asking the court to grant her judgment for $500 alleged to be due and an allowance of $40 a month. In another suit against Richardson the former wife asks for judgment for $350 as half of the rents collected by Richardson from property owned jointly by them in Twin Falls, Idaho.

SHAMROCK PILOT HERO MEDALIST

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS

LEASING WIRE TO TRIBUNE

SEABRIGHT N. J., July 21.—Captain Andrew Jackson Appling aboard Shamrock IV, direct Captain Burton in tide and wind, did not achieve fame for the first time when he stepped aboard the challenger. Following the sea along the Atlantic coast from Florida to New York for fifty years, he came into prominence in 1903, when he dared a surf from which coast guards turned, and rescued two men and a woman.

Strained in his fourth year, a mile off Seabright. For this he received the Carnegie medal.

By FRANCIS J. WHITE, International News Service Staff Correspondent.

ABOARD THE STEAM YACHT VICTORIA, SIR THOMAS LIPTON'S YACHT, OFF SANDY HOOK, July 21.—(By Wire)—Sir Thomas Lipton carefully scanned the weather conditions today and said he felt optimistic about the outcome of the race this afternoon between Shamrock IV and Resolute.

"While I feel confident, I would like to see a little more wind," declared the famous Irish yachtsman. The water was calm and the wind light.

Sir Thomas Lipton has received more than 100 cablegrams and telegrams from all parts of the United States and the entire world congratulating him upon Shamrock IV's victory yesterday. The most notable message came from Premier Massey of New Zealand. This cablegram, which was dated Wellington, N. Z., read: "On behalf of New Zealand I send heartfelt congratulations on the victory of Shamrock IV. Nothing succeeds like success. Your tenacity has at last come into its own reward."

Abandoned Boat May Prove Missing Man's

VALLEJO, July 21.—After reading a story that a small boat had been found on the beach in the vicinity of Fort Bragg, Mrs. Helga Torstenson, wife of former Chief Master-at-Arms Torstenson, has wired to Fort Bragg for further particulars as the description tallies with that of the boat her husband sailed from Bremerton for Vallejo early in June.

The boat was painted gray, had no engine and was stripped of all rigging. From this it would indicate that the person sailing it had met death by drowning.

MRS. M. JONAS CALLED BY DEATH

Funeral services for Mrs. Marcus Jonas, wife of a prominent retired Oakland merchant, who died yesterday, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the family residence, 1085 Castro street. Rabbi Harvey B. Franklin officiating.

Interment will be made in Mount View cemetery.

Mrs. Jonas, who was known as a philanthropic and charitable worker, has been treasurer of the Daughters of Israel Relief for 14 years. She has lived in Oakland for 35 years.

The deceased is survived by her husband, two sons and two daughters and two brothers. The sons are Alfred and William Jonas, the daughters, Gladys, Jonas and Mrs. Felix Jonas of Los Angeles, and the brothers Adolph and Edward Drottner of San Francisco. Another brother, Jacob Drottner, died some time ago.

Mrs. Jonas was born March 23, 1863, in Germany.

She and Mr. Jonas were married in San Francisco thirty-three years ago and lived in their home in Oakland since that time.

STATE NEWS

REDDING, July 21.—Myer Hoffer, 32, died in an accident. While attempting to start the motor of an airplane Hoffer slipped and fell into the propeller. He came to Redding from Wilkins, Cal.

FOREST FIRES RAGE
RIVERSIDE, July 21.—What started as one fire in the San Jacinto mountains, six miles east of Riverside, developed into three, all beyond control and considered the worst in the history of forest fires in this county.

AUTOISTS INJURED
FRESNO, July 21.—While Mr. and Mrs. H. Ohenian and Mr. and Mrs. Bagdazian were returning to their home at Fowler the auto in which they were riding was struck by a passenger train on the Southern Pacific and all in the car were injured. Mrs. Ohenian is not expected to recover from internal injuries and a fractured skull and a child of the Bagdazian family who was in the car was also internally injured and may die. The car was demolished.

CHILD SHOTS PLAYMATE
NAPA, July 21.—Martha Stewart, 4, whose parents live in West Napa, was seriously wounded when a rifle which she and some playmates discovered in an outbuilding was accidentally discharged by one of the latter.

The bullet passed through the child's left arm and lodged in her chest just below the heart.

SENTENCED TO DEATH
SACRAMENTO, July 21.—David Clifton, negro, was sentenced to be hanged at Folsom prison on October 1st for the murder of Henry Smith, also colored, in the Superior Court here.

Attorney Ralph Smith, for the defendant, made a motion for a new trial, which was denied.

Clifton and Smith quarreled over a negro woman.

AUTOIST FOUND DEAD
SUBANVILLE, July 21.—The man found dead near the Subanville-Westwood road was Henry Shultz, 35, who was traveling by automobile from Janesville to Westwood when last seen, but the automobile has disappeared. The manner of the man's death has not been explained. The police theory is that Shultz died of some natural cause and that the car then was stolen.

PLUM CROP RECORD
FRESNO, July 21.—A record plum crop, which it is expected will net the owner, Louis Bachman, $150,000, has been raised on his four-acre ranch near Reedley, said to be one of the best plum orchards in this section of the state. Last year the returns from the orchard were $47,000 and that amount is expected to be exceeded this year. The trees are said to be exceptionally well cared for and the fruit is of fine quality and very large.

Sailor Is Beaten Up By Beggar of Alms

SAN FRANCISCO, July 21.—Violence broke out as a sailor was beaten up by two beggars in beating up Dermont because he had refused to give them alms. Dermont told the police that two men, dressed in sailor uniforms, accosted him as he was entering his room at 473 Pine street. A few minutes later the men entered the room, asked for money and upon being refused, picked up the stones which were on the mantelpiece, and beat Dermont severely. Dermont went to the Harbor Hospital for treatment.

Ferryboat Oakland Starts Run Thursday

The Oakland will begin her first passenger run tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock. The boat has a seating capacity of 1650. She was reconstructed at a cost of $250,000. The old hull of the Oakland, a familiar craft on the bay, was used in the building of the new ferryboat. The pilot house is modeled after those on the Brooklyn ferries and introduces a new type here. The engine room being into the salon is enclosed in glass.

Berkeley Clerk Is Victim of Hold-Ups

SAN FRANCISCO, July 21.—R. J. Gorman, clerk residing at 955 Nelson street, Berkeley, reported to the San Francisco police that he had been held up by two men at 42nd avenue and Stout boulevard last night and robbed of $17 and a gold watch. According to Gorman's report, he was waiting for a street car when he was confronted by two armed men who ordered him to make no outcry, searched him and then fled.

PLAN FOR 2 BIG PACIFIC COAST LINERS IS BARED

LOS ANGELES, July 21.—Plans for two ships to cost $4,000,000 each, for service between Los Angeles and Puget Sound were made public today through A. F. Haines, vice-president of the Pacific Steamship Company, operating the Admiral Line. Each vessel will be 500 feet long, and will represent the Atlantic coastwise standard of luxury.

Fruitvale Wives to Lay Boycott Plans

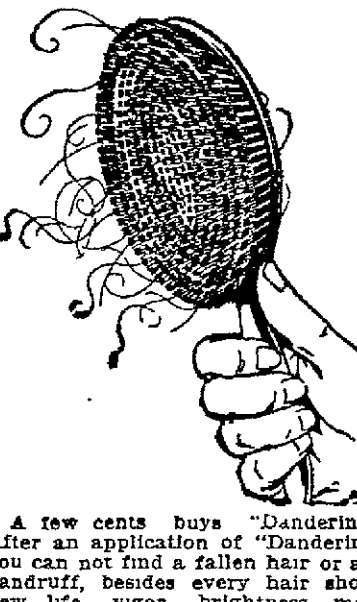

The milk and meat situations will be discussed tomorrow afternoon at the meeting of the Fruitvale State Housewives League in the auditorium at Fruitvale avenue and East Twenty-third street. Plans will be made to join in a milk boycott in accordance with the program of the state body should an increase in milk prices be announced for August 1. Mrs. S. F. Emery is president of the east end organization and chairman of the emergency milk committee in the Oakland State Housewives League.

OHIO CITY READY TO HANDLE HUGE HARDING CROWD

MARION, Ohio, July 21.—Arrangements to handle the vast crowd expected tomorrow were completed today. Unless rain intervenes it is anticipated that 50,000 will come to Marion to hear the first real public utterance by Senator Harding since his nomination.

Tents are springing up on every vacant lot. Under these big awnings will be fed on barbecued beef.

Arrangements have been announced for more than thirty special trains.

The notification committee of which Senator Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts is chairman, gathered in Columbus today and was to come to Marion tomorrow morning on a special train.

The committee will be accompanied by Will H. Hays, national chairman, and most of the men high in the councils of the Republican party.

ELKS COME WITH BAND

Harding received his first out-of-town delegation yesterday when 150 Elks from Findlay, O., marched up with a band. Congressman Clinton Cole, in the name of the Elks, asked Harding to attend a homecoming celebration in that town during the first week of August. The senator said he would do so if it did not conflict with other engagements.

He is proud to be an Elk," the senator said.

Harding's speech of acceptance tomorrow is expected to give prominence to the foreign policy of President Wilson and to advance the campaign toward a squarely joined issue between the two political parties.

He will make a declaration squaring with the party platform and the party record, successfully bringing the Republican differences of opinion which threatened a split with Chicago, it was expected to express his belief that America should not remain isolated and to take the position that the war's sacrifices will prove in vain unless there is established a new order with added security to peace and civilization. It is regarded as unlikely that the nominee will go into a detailed discussion of the league covenant or will speak objectively of resurrections or interpretations.

Under Political Spotlight's Eye

HOOD RIVER, Ore., July 21.—The Rev. William A. (Billy) Sunday, evangelist, mentioned in Lincoln, Neb., despatches as a possible nominee for vice-president by the Prohibition party, says he deemed it hardly necessary for the Prohibitionists to confer with him as to their choice, since he was satisfied with the Republican Party's attitude on the liquor question.

LINCOLN, Neb., July 21.—Warren G. Stone, grand chief of the Order of Railway Engineers, has prepared a labor plank which will be presented to the Prohibition party. An anti-tobacco plank to be proposed by a Colorado delegate is not likely to receive serious consideration, according to the committee.

COLUMBUS, O., July 21.—The central and eastern states will comprise the initial speaking forum of Governor Cox, Democratic standard bearer, according to tentative plans announced today. Almost immediately after his notification Aug. 7, he plans to spend the three last weeks in these states and then start a western tour early in September. Franklin D. Roosevelt also probably will tour the west, including the Pacific Coast states, while Governor Cox is in the east.

2000 Movie Studio Workers, N.Y., Strike

NEW YORK, July 21.—More than 2000 movie picture workers in New York and vicinity went on strike today, tying up or crippling a score of film plants.

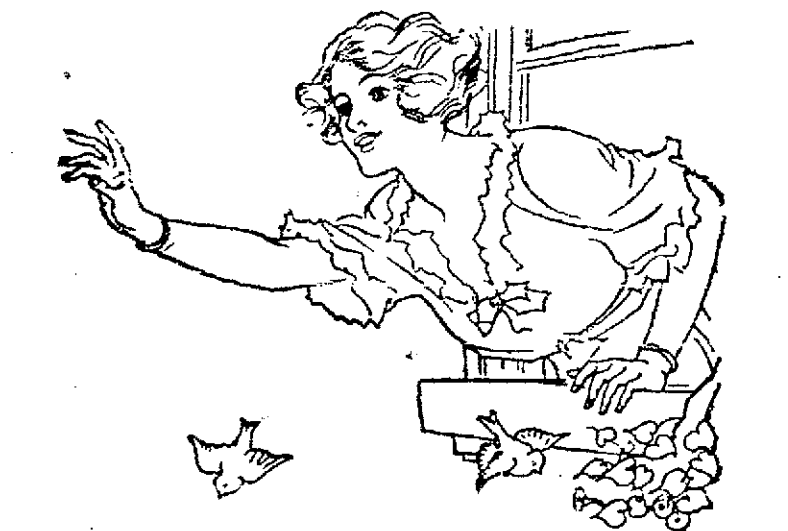

The reason given for the walkout is the failure of the National Association of the Motion Picture Industry to meet the demands of the workers for increases in wages, shorter hours and recognition of the union.

Union leaders threaten to spread the strike throughout the country and include camera men, machine operators, stage hands and others employed in the "movie" industry.

24 film laboratories in the metropolitan district are affected by the strike, union leaders declared tonight, adding that the walkout would mean the curtailment of film production by at least 20,000,000 feet per week.

GLORIOUS! I'M NOT BILIOUS NOW!

Yesterday I was Sick, Headachy, Constipated but I took "Dodson's Liver Tone"—not Sickening Calomel!

You're bilious, sluggish, constipated. You feel headachy, your stomach aches, your breath bad, your skin sallow and you believe you need vile, dangerous Calomel to start liver and bowels.

Here's my guarantee: Ask your druggist for a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone and take a spoonful tonight. If it doesn't start your liver and straighten you right up better than Calomel and without griping or making you sick I want you to go back to the store and get your money.

Take Calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak and sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day. Take a spoonful of harmless vegetable Dodson's Liver Tone tonight and wake up feeling splendid. It is perfectly harmless, so give it to your children any time. It can't salivate.

Dry Law Violated in Many Cities, Delegates Are Told

LINCOLN, Neb., July 21.—"We are still on the map and our mission is not ended," Aaron S. Watkins, keynote speaker at the Prohibition party's presidential year convention, told the delegates at its opening session here this morning. "We must place in the field a ticket of real presidential size and make a campaign that will win the respect of all thinking men and women."

Watkins said that the prohibition question was not settled and would not be "until the machinery of government is attached and the law-breakers surrender unconditionally."

Watkins is professor of English in a school at Germantown, Ohio.

NOT SOLVING ISSUES

Watkins continued: "When we inquire of the leaders of the two major parties why an iron-clad prohibition plank was omitted from each of the party platforms we are handsomely informed that the question is settled. Years ago when we pleaded for such a plank, they said that it never can be settled, or at any rate, it is too soon to make the fight. Now it is too late to mention the subject!"

He wondered when would have been the psychological moment that the question of prohibition would have been brought up.

Prohibition is not settled and will not be settled until the machinery of government is attached and the law-breakers surrender unconditionally.

G.O.P. CONDEMNS STOCKTON EDITOR

STOCKTON, July 21.—The Republican county central committee of San Joaquin county has adopted the following resolutions condemning the attitude of the publisher of the Stockton Daily Record, a Republican office holder, in declaring for Cox:

Resolved, that we, the members of the Republican county committee of San Joaquin county, hereby endorse the nominees of the national Republican party, Hon. Warren G. Harding and Hon. Calvin Coolidge. We pledge our best efforts for the election of said candidates, and we hereby endorse the platform of the national Republican convention.

We hereby denounce the attitude of the Stockton Daily Evening Record for its betrayal of the Republican party, after its participation in the Republican primary election, and especially because while its editor is receiving the sum of $5000 per year at the hands of a Republican State administration, and we urge upon the loyal Republicans of San Joaquin county the advisability of supporting our national Republican candidates, notwithstanding the traitorous conduct of this newspaper.

Resolved, that the Republican county central committee of the county of San Joaquin State of California, do and hereby does pledge its loyal support to the candidacy and election of that able, consistent and lifelong supporter of Republican principles and of American ideals, the Hon. Samuel Shortridge.

Do it further resolved, that this resolution be given the fullest publicity, and that a copy thereof be forwarded to our staunch Republican governor, so that he may be informed that this ungrateful political appointee does not speak for the Republicans of San Joaquin county.

Publisher Martin has replied declaring that:

The committee's talk of the Record "betraying the Republican party" is rot. And as for the princely salary of $5000 per year at the hands of a Republican state administration, that princely salary is not being paid by the Republican party, but from the state treasury, and the service therefore is not being performed for the Republican party, but for the people.

In the contest for the Republican nomination for senator we are for Kent. We have given our reasons for this. The Republican committee is for Shortridge because he has been an "able, consistent and lifelong supporter of Republican principles and American ideals." We cannot help remembering that Shortridge was one of the leading attorneys for the grafters in the days of Ruef and Schmitz and the graft prosecution, and that does not accord with our ideas of "American ideals." In this respect we differ from the Republican committee.

DEBT LEADS TO KILLING

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., July 21.—A quarrel over a $1 debt led to the killing of Ernest White, 29 years old, at Hollister, Mo., yesterday by Jack Mead, 30 years old.

Every refusal to declare for law-enforcement simply encourages the wet forces to believe that the present wave of enthusiasm will subside and that the people will soon forget.

FAIL TO ENFORCE LAW

"We do not face a bold, defiant and despotic liquor power as in years gone by, but so long as leading statesmen develop the question of law-enforcement and governors and legislatures plan for the nullification of the national constitution, so long as temperance men sleep in their tents and wet forces plan midnight attacks, so long will the great dominant issue of our party be a living question. Former liquor selling places all over the state and before had intact, with fixtures and possibly liquor, in expectation of the time when indifference and tolerance on the part of the officials will change to positive friction."

In many cities, the law is openly violated and officials who are dry in sentiment are withheld from enforcing the law for the fear of the party boss, who will not risk the alienation of any considerable number of voters. Parties are suspicious of each other and will neglect a plain duty for fear the opposition party will gain a temporary advantage. While we are thankful for the progress made and hopeful of the final outcome, we cannot ignore plain facts nor build false hopes.

'DRYS' SWELTER UNDER ORATORY AT CONVENTION

nearly an hour, when it was moved to the previous question to prevent delegates from overheating themselves with the temperature at 105 in the shade. The matter was forced to a vote, being unanimously carried. In giving the national committee meeting to order, Virgil C. Henshaw, chairman, of Chicago, enumerated the planks the party had sponsored before the old parties had taken them up or they had been adopted without old party sponsorship. Among those for which he claimed credit to the prohibition party were: woman suffrage, civil service, election of senators, opposition to lotteries, opposition to white slave traffic, child labor laws, uniform marriage and divorce laws and, above all, prohibition.

According to the testimony of William Allen White and Reed Smoot," he said, "the resolutions committee adopted a dry plank, but it was lost on the way to the convention. The entire convention adopted by unanimous vote a law enforcement plank but that plank was lost on the way from the national convention to the Republican party printing press and that declaration is missing from the official platform issued by the Republican party headquarters."

Henshaw also attacked the Republican and Democratic presidential candidates, Harding as an "anti-prohibitionist" and Cox as "an out-and-out wet."

One of the largest delegations to arrive here was the California group of 25. Forty Illinois delegates in caucus this morning decided to cast their ballots for Robert H. Patton, Springfield, Ill., for presidential nominee.

Hog Island Plans Record Launchings

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

PHILADELPHIA, July 21.—Hog Island today planned to establish a new world's ship-launching record. Seven 725-ton steel cargo carriers, the last on the ways at the big plant, will be sent overboard, according to the arrangements, within fifty minutes or less. Officials of the American International Shipbuilding corporation claim this is the first time such a feat was attempted.

Elaborate preparations were made for the launchings. The yard was thrown open to the public.

Conference Hears Oil Wage Demands

SAN FRANCISCO, July 21.—The conference being conducted here between the Federal Mediation Commission, representatives of the American Federation of Labor and Oil Workers (Union and Oil Producers in regard to demands made by the workers for increased wages, developed today into a meeting between workers and operators groups to arrive at a classification of the oil employees. The workers have made demands for an increase ranging from 12 to 25.50 a day.

Each group is divided into committees on oil fields, pipe lines and refineries. All meetings will be executive, it was said.

Buys Stock at $600; Shares Now $30,000

A purchase of mining stock several years ago from a friend for $600 as a favor, has resulted in wealth for Mrs. Alice T. Russell, secretary of a coal company for Judge A. F. St. Suro. The stock consisted of shares in a California gold mine which has proved to be rich in ore and the shares owned by Mrs. Russell are now estimated to be worth $30,000.

St. Augustine Dance Planned Tomorrow

Young women of St. Augustine's church will give a dance tomorrow evening at St. Augustine's Hall, Alcatraz avenue and Dana street. The committee in charge includes Miss Lillian Harrington, Miss Margaret B. Rowe, Miss Margaret Harrington, Miss Frances Young, Miss Helen Rowe, Miss Beatrice Barton, Miss Rita Driscoll, Miss Anne Loucke and Miss Agnes Duffey.

BOURBONS PICK PILOT AND OPEN THEIR OFFENSIVE

COLUMBUS, O., July 21.—Real campaign efforts of the Democrats were to begin today following the choice of George H. White of Marietta, O., as chairman of the national committee at the meeting yesterday. Judge E. H. Moore, Governor Cox's manager at the San Francisco convention, said he could not possibly consider the post.

One of the first steps was to be to arrange accounting publicity could be given on party funds.

Charges that the Republicans were raising a campaign fund sufficient to shock the sensibilities, were made last night by Cox in an address to the committee.

The Democrats, Governor Cox declared, will insist upon continuation of the Senatorial investigation of campaign collections and expenditures and also will make frequent and detailed accountings of their finances.

After a conference between Cox, Franklin D. Roosevelt and White, it was announced that the tentative dates for the notification of the presidential and vice-presidential candidates were: Cox, Saturday, Aug. 7 at Dayton, the Governor's home, and Roosevelt, Monday, Aug. 9, at Hyde Park, N. Y.

The National Committee adopted a resolution that the Federal woman suffrage amendment by the Tennessee and North Carolina legislatures.

The boy was a caddie at the club.

LEADERS OF SIX STATES IN WEST PLEDGE HARDING

Republican national committee members and state chairmen of the six western states who met in San Francisco yesterday, today sent a telegram to Warren G. Harding assuring him he would carry those states at the November election.

The telegram said:

Representatives of six coast states in conference in San Francisco send cordial and hearty greetings to you as their leader. They regret they cannot be with you for the important ceremonies of Thursday, but beg to supplement that notification with a less important but no less gratifying notification to you that we are confident you may expect the electoral vote of these six states.

ISSUES OUTLINED

Democratic extravagance, Wilson autonomy, rampant profiteering and victimizing of the people by corrupt interests with the sanction of the administration and the acts of Attorney-General Palmer in "restricting free speech and thought," are the ammunition with which the Republican national committee will fight the Democrats. It was decided at the meeting. The states represented were: Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Nevada, Arizona and California.

The meeting was held at the Palace hotel, Harding will be urged to visit the Pacific coast.

Guy Kelly, said that the standard-bearers in Oregon are having a great fight with the Non-Partisan League, which has 22,000 members, mostly farmers, and with the railway

Fusion Chief Asks Harding And Cox to Plead for Debs

DENVER, July 21.—Farley P. Christensen, Fusion party candidate for president, today telegraphed to Senator Harding and Governor Cox suggesting that all join in a demand for President Wilson immediately to release Eugene V. Debs from prison.

He said:

"I have been selected by the Farmer-Labor party as its candidate for president of the United States. It is my intention to inaugurate, as quickly as possible, a nation-wide campaign in behalf of the ideals of political and industrial democracy, embraced in the platform of that party. But I dislike utterly to start on such a campaign while one of my opponents is in prison for no crime other than an honest public expression of his political views. I refer to Eugene V. Debs, nominee of the Socialist party."

"The war has been over for nearly two years, and whatever justice there might have been on the part of the government for denying Debs his freedom during the war, has been dissipated by twenty months of peace. Debs must be atterly wrong in his ideas of how best to conduct the affairs of society, and so I may be and so may you, but my conviction of liberty includes the right to think wrong. I say to Debs and to others, with whom I disagree, including the candidates of the Republican and Democratic parties, 'I loathe your ideas like death but I will defend with my life your right to express them.'"

"Does it not appeal to you as a matter of simple justice that the presidential candidates of the Democratic, Republican and Farmer-Labor parties should join in a demand upon the president of the United States immediately to release the Socialist candidate from Atlanta prison? As for me it shall not be said that I have been a party to the persecution of any man for the opinions he holds, and I should so regard myself if I failed publicly to announce my condemnation of the imprisonment of Debs since I have entered a race in which he is a competitor. Your sense of sportsmanship must have led you, since your nomination, to consider the position of Debs. I beseech an answer from you to this proposal."

regional ways and means chairman, Allen B. James, national committeeman from Arizona; Judge Albert M. Sames, state chairman of Arizona; Mrs. Katherine P. Edson, M. P. Niles of Washington and Joe Craft of Los Angeles.

Congressman Julius Kahn and John I. Nolan were visitors to the conference.

Coal Diggers Leave Pits; Strike "Outlaw"

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 21.—What appeared to be a general and unanticipated strike of bituminous coal miners is spreading rapidly over southern Illinois coal fields. West Frankfort reports the strike which began there has closed all mines in that section. Benton reported that 700 men walked out this morning, and that it was expected 22 mines in Franklin county would be idle by the end of the week. At Belleville 300 men quit.

TONGUE OF COX, WILSON'S VOICE, G.O.P. CHARGE

WASHINGTON, July 21.—In a statement issued in the name of the Republican National Committee from the committee headquarters, the conference between President Wilson and Governor Cox last Sunday is discussed in part as follows:

Cox has officially and completely adopted Wilson's Democracy, which means Wilson's political program. Cox has surrendered any difference he may have had; has distinctly given up all reservations to the league of nations and has surrendered every other variation, big or little, which was out of harmony with Wilson's exact demands. Any one who knows the President knows he is a most exacting master. There cannot be the slightest difference if one is to receive his benediction and approval. A man must be absolute in his Wilsonian Democracy.

"Cox therefore has assumed all the burdens incident to Wilson's policies and administration."

"Cox is for Wilson's league of nations exactly as it was written. He is for the world policies and conduct of Wilson that have cost us the friendship of every nation and that threaten to engulf us in a world of trouble in the future. In short, the American people are now called upon to decide just one question—after having had seven years of Woodrow Wilson's Democracy, do they want four years more of the same thing?"

Moslem Plot Against British Is Discovered

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 21.—(By The Associated Press.)—Whole-sale arrests were made here today in connection with an alleged plot to promote a general uprising of Moslems against foreign occupation. The confession of one plotter is reported to have implicated high officials of one of the entente powers in the alleged conspiracy which was directed chiefly against the British.

DIVE KILLS GIRL
OREGON CITY, Ore., July 21.—Ethel Etter, 15, a student of the Oregon City High school, died yesterday from concussion of the brain received last Wednesday when she was diving in the Willamette river, at her home near Canemah.

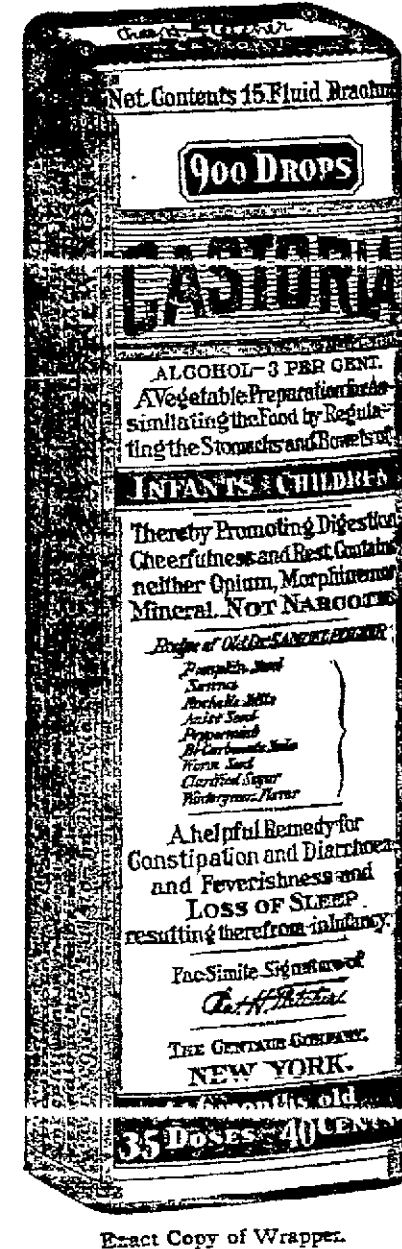

Some More Truths.

WOULD you use a steam shovel to move a pebble? Certainly not. Implements are built according to the work they have to do.

Would you use a grown-up's remedy for your baby's ills? Certainly not. Remedies are prepared according to the work THEY have to do.

All this is preliminary to reminding you that Fletcher's Castoria was sought out, found and is prepared solely as a remedy for Infants and Children. And let this be a warning against Substitutes, Counterfeits and the Just-as-good stuff that may be all right for you in all your strength, but dangerous for the little babe.

All the mother-love that lies within your heart cries out to you: Be true to Baby. And being true to Baby you will keep in the house remedies specially prepared for babies as you would a baby's food, hairbrush, toothbrush or sponge.

Children Cry For Fletcher's CASTORIA

Are You Prepared?

A doctor in the house all the time would be a good idea. Yet you can't afford to keep a doctor in the family to keep baby well or prevent sickness. But you can do almost the same thing by having at hand a bottle of Fletcher's Castoria, because it is a wonderful remedy for indigestion, colic, feverishness, fretfulness and all the other disorders that result from common ailments that babies have.

Fletcher's Castoria is perfectly safe to use. It is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. Children cry for Fletcher's Castoria, and mothers recommend it because they have found it a comfort to children and a mother's friend.

If you love your baby, you know how sweet it is to be able to help baby when trouble comes. You cannot always call upon a doctor. But doctors have nothing but good to say of Fletcher's Castoria, because they know that it can only do good—that it can't do any harm—and they wouldn't want you to use for baby a remedy that you would use for yourself.

Make this TRUST DEPARTMENT your Financial Secretary

AS A MAN'S BUSINESS grows and his investments multiply each makes an increasingly confiding demand upon his time.

The effort of going frequently to his safe deposit box to get out securities, cut coupons, collect interest, transfer securities, etc., results in a serious distraction from his business which can be entirely obviated by employing this TRUST DEPARTMENT to act as Custodian.

Lawyers, Doctors, Architects or Engineers who have little time for financial details could well afford to pay this TRUST DEPARTMENT to act as their financial secretary.

Women usually dislike financial routine—the safe deposit of securities, the keeping of accounts, the collecting of interest, the payment of debts—operations which multiply in the care of property. Complete relief is afforded by employing this TRUST DEPARTMENT to act as Custodian.

A short talk with any official of the TRUST DEPARTMENT will quickly convince you of your actual need of its service.

Local Society Sees Popular Couple Wed

The wedding of Miss Grace Huxley and Eustace Angwin at St. Clement's chapel in Claremont yesterday was quite the outstanding affair of the week, a hundred relatives and friends attending the service and the subsequent reception at the Huxley home in Piedmont.

The bride, in a pink afternoon frock and a large drooping hat, was attended by her sister, Marjorie Huxley, wearing a dress of harmonized well with her coloring. Thomas Huxley Jr. served the groom.

Both families of the interested folk are well known about the bay, the bride being the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Huxley, and Angwin the son of Mrs. Edwin Angwin of Berkeley.

The Angwins will make their home in the college town.

WILLIAM TAYLOR GOING TO TAIPEI

Taylor continues to lure the smart set of the East Bay. It is reported that he is in and around the Sierras, with the Lake country leading. William A. Taylor will go up, following a well established precedent since Elizabeth, the debutante daughter of the household, was in rompers.

Miss Elizabeth Bliss, a fellow "deb," has been at the lake since the first of August, and the two Elizabeths make an irresistible pair.

The Taylors will spend the month of August at the lake, returning to prepare for a trip East, to which Miss Taylor is looking forward with a keen wish, not wholly accounted for by the social allurements assured by her family affiliations in New York and elsewhere. Her interest in art is the other lure. In the fall the exhibitions of import hold the boards. Every reputable gallery is filled with artists from all over America—and many from over the water—presenting their year's work for the world's inspection.

And always interesting premieres are put on in the arts when the summer holidays are an end.

For these the California girl will be a keen auditor and student.

Harry Hush Taylor will return today from a trip to Catalina, where he went to spend the week-end with his fiancée, Miss Juanita Ghirardelli, who with her mother, Mrs. Louis Ghirardelli, and Miss Elva Ghirardelli are spending the month of August on the island made famous by the agile tuna.

MISS CHEVALIER

MISS Adele Chevalier was hostess at a tea today at her home across the bay, to which a group of girls from this side are asked to go.

Among them are Mrs. Claire Brooks (Mrs. MacDonald), Miss Claire Knight and others of the "deb" set.

The tea was quite informal, the guests assembling at the Pacific avenue home of the hostess.

CONGENIAL ROUTES

AT DEL MONTE

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Valentine and the Walter Valentines are enjoying a visit to Del Monte.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Neylan are taking a hand in golf at the home of the San Francisco lawyer, contesting with Herbert Fleischacker over the greens.

Miss Dorothy Whitehurst and her brother, Leslie Whitehurst, left yesterday for the lake first, where they will spend a couple of weeks.

Mrs. Henry Schacht of Euclid avenue and her daughter, Miss Ramona—a graduate of Miss Head's, who will be next semester at the University of California—have taken a house in Ross for the summer.

Mrs. Jessie Francis Short, the Berkeley painter, became the bride on Monday evening of Robert Wallace Jackson, the secretary of the State at the Short home, with only the relatives of the interested families in attendance.

Mrs. Jackson is the mother of Douglas and James C. Short. For some years she has made her home in Berkeley, but maintained a studio on Russian Hill.

The Jacksons will reside across the bay.

REV. WEBB WEDS

A wedding of interest to the Oakland Churches was that of Rev. Aldis Leroy Webb, pastor of the First Christian Church, and Miss Hazel Fern Rice of Fresno.

The ceremony took place at Fresno during the regular State Christian League Convention, held at the Hotel Hamilton, where Webb was field secretary of California Christian League.

Dr. John F. Mills of the First Baptist Church, of which the bride was a member, Mr. and Mrs. Webb are now in Fresno, where he is filling the pulpit of the East Side Christian Church in the absence of Dr. E. B. Sawyer, who has been called to London, England, to deliver a series of lectures. At the close of this month Rev. Webb will continue his work in the pastorate of the church.

The Christian Endeavor Society issued the following statement today: "If you're a real member of the First Christian Church and a friend of the Christian Endeavor, and you want to see our society carry off the honors in the parade at San Francisco, you are asked to give some money to help us. We leave for Santa Cruz tomorrow."

"The flowers for decoration today were furnished by Mrs. George Matthews."

WILL VISIT VATICAN

Acting at the request of Cardinal Gibbons, James Slewin has sailed for Rome to make arrangements for the return to this country of the choir of the Vatican and the Roman band. Slewin will tour this country as they did last year when their visit was cut short by the recall of the singers to Rome to conduct the ritual of important church events.

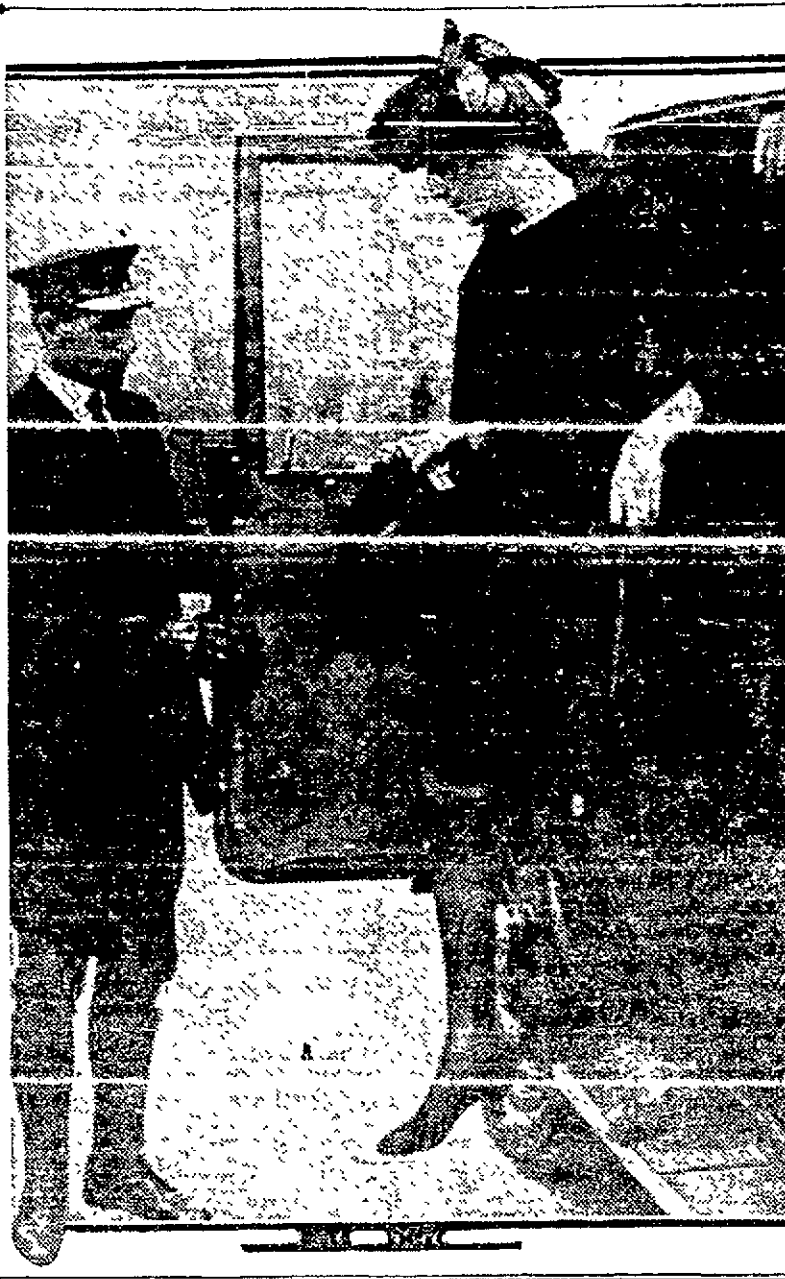

The opportunity for development of popular interest in classic liturgical music is the primary reason the Vatican has again consented to permit the choir to leave Rome," said Slewin, before he sailed. "Many communities were eager to hear the famous chorists on their last tour, but were prevented by their recall. It is to satisfy this demand that another tour is contemplated."

While in Rome Slewin will also make plans for a Boston movie picture, the scenario of which was written by a leading American prolate. Before leaving Rome he will receive three degrees in the Knights of Columbus in ten hours, the first in Brooklyn, the second in the Bronx and the third in Manhattan.

RELIGION SAVES BOWLS

Christianity as an economic investment has appeared in a Japanese magazine according to the "United Presbyterian," which prints a brief statement crediting a Japanese trade journal to the effect that a non-Christian factory owner of Osaka advises other producers to permit religious instruction among their employees.

"During the twelve months which have passed since the missionaries first began to come a thousand less than the year before," he wrote. "This is because there is less bad temper among the women workers who listen to the Christian teachings."

INJUNCTION WILL RUIN, IS CLAIM

OROVILLE, July 21.—Stating that if an injunction is granted the delta farmers and the city of Antioch by the courts restraining them from diverting waters from streams of Northern California for irrigation purposes they will not only lose their crops, but in many cases will also lose their lands, rice growers of Butte county voice their intention of fighting the proposed injunction to the bitter end.

Despite reports from the Department of Agriculture to the effect that the state's rice crop will be far below the average, the 1921 harvest here is expected to outstrip all estimates.

PROPERTY VALUE GROWS $852,425 SINCE LAST YEAR

ALAMEDA, July 21.—Property valuations, personal and real estate, have advanced $852,425 in the last year, according to figures made public today by F. J. Croll, auditor and assessor.

Real estate for the year is valued at $12,005,375 against a valuation of $11,152,950 for 1927. The personal property roll for 1928 is $1,085,000 and for 1927 it was $825,075.

Two hundred and sixty-two service men, entitled to exemption of $1000 taxes on four estates and personal property, applied in Alameda for exemption, according to Croll's figures. This entailed $176,000 allowed in exemption for 1928. During the last year $124,450 was allowed under this head.

An automobile to every fifteen persons in the city is the average as shown by machines assessed for 1928. Two thousand one hundred and sixty-nine machines, are valued at $607,322.

Comptroller of U.C. Addresses Rotarians

ALAMEDA, July 21.—Robert Sproule, comptroller of the University of California, was guest of honor and principal speaker at the weekly luncheon of the Alameda Rotary Club today at Neptune Beach. Sproule, in an informal talk, took up the financial conditions of the university. John H. Wilkens, chairman of the organization, presided.

HO, GOVERNOR! TRY THIS ONE ON YOUR DULCIMER

Across the continent to James Cox, Democratic nominee for president of the United States, has gone a poetic wall on the high cost of living. It came from Oakland housewives. Mrs. Kathryn Russell Rice voiced the plaint of her sisters in the four lines of rhyme which the Columbus, Ohio, headquarters acknowledged yesterday.

When you are President Cox,
Please reduce the price of frocks,
Also that of silken socks,
Make living cheap in humble walks.

Spinning to Face Colorado Charges

LOS ANGELES, July 21.—(Circus Spinning) alias Elsie, alleged abductor of 13-year-old Elizabeth Magee, and held here on charges of embezzling money from the girl's mother, will be handed over to Colorado authorities to answer charges of parole violation there. Under-sheriff Manning said today following such recommendation of the district attorney's office.

Spinning, who was returned with his wife several days ago, admits having violated a parole at Buena Vista, Colo., Manning said. He was convicted of robbery and paroled from the Colorado state reformatory, according to a telegram from Warden M. A. Cope, who asked that Spinning be returned there if local charges are insufficient to hold him.

Constantine Magee, father of Elizabeth, has taken charge of the girl and will seek annulment of the marriage, he told officers.

If you see it in the TRIBUNE, tell them so.

PICNIC BECKONING TRIBUNE WORKERS

All aboard for the Annual TRIBUNE Outing!

Employees of The TRIBUNE Publishing Company and their friends will put away their cares on Sunday to make merry together at Pinhurst park, the picturesque spot on the Sacramento Short Line. There will be plenty of music to while away the hours, with delightful places under broad trees to enjoy the al fresco lunch. Amateur athletes will test prowess, earnest and humorous.

Games for the old and the young, and the old and the young together, have been programmed. Everybody will find something to do that he likes to do. July 22 is being reserved by several hundred for the mid-summer event, which the past has proved a red letter day.

Special cars will leave Fortieth street and Shafter avenue at 10:10 o'clock Sunday morning for the picnic park.

Many Will Attend Y.M.C.A. Conference

H. H. Barrows of Oakland will be one of the speakers at the Alameda Y. M. C. A. conference and school which opens this week and continues to August 5. Barrows, speech will be "The Human Element in Industry."

The Y. M. C. A. school and conference at Alameda this year, it is said, will have the largest attendance of any session to date. Advance registrations indicate that all classes will be filled. Several members of the staff of the Oakland association will be identified with the work.

REDWOODS AT DAWN CHOSEN FOR WEDDING

The redwoods of the Santa Cruz mountains at dawn was chosen by H. D. Anderson, Americanization secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, and Miss Elmer Sams of Los Angeles, as the setting for their wedding.

Following the romantic ceremony the young people started out on their honeymoon through the mountains, stopping at Del Monte before making camp near La Honda. They are now at Astoria completing vacation by attending the annual Y. M. C. A. school and conference. They will return to Oakland next month.

Anderson was formerly connected with the public school department in the Americanization branch. The bride, until the time of her marriage, was industrial secretary for the Y. W. C. A. in Los Angeles.

Battery Men Gather To Complete Roster

A meeting of B Battery of the 143d Field Artillery will be held tomorrow evening in the new club rooms in the Odd Fellows building at Eleventh and Franklin streets to bring the organization up to the minimum number of enlisted men. The state requires battery rolls must be names before the unit can be mustered in.

B Battery is the first recruited in the re-organization of the entire regiment, undertaken by Colonel R. J. Faneuf, who commanded the regiment in France, and who, for many years, has been identified with the California National Guard.

Major Harry Huger, also of the regiment, will preside at the meeting tonight. Following the recruiting to peace strength, two other units will be organized. Captain J. E. Fahy will command B Battery.

HOUSEWIVES WILL CONFER ON MILK PRICES

ALAMEDA, July 21.—A request that representatives of the Housewives League of the Eastbay attend a meeting in the near future when municipal officials will confer with milk dealers concerning the proposed raise in milk prices, will be made by the Alameda league, according to the statement today of Mrs. Larkin Marston, chairman.

The Alameda league will hold the regular weekly meeting tomorrow afternoon at the Knights of Pythias hall, when Mrs. Grace Hoffman, who has been making a detailed survey of the milk situation, will report. Mrs. Hoffman will also tell if imposing a 4-cent milk to this city for distribution will be practical.

Mrs. May Larkin Marston, president, will occupy the chair. Following the regular business session, eggs, milk and prunes and potatoes will be sold at wholesale to members.

Boy Kills Mother While Cleaning Pistol

NEW YORK, July 21.—While Alphonse Cannella, nineteen, was being arraigned in a magistrate's court in Brooklyn on a charge of violation of the Sullivan law his mother, Mrs. Anna Cannella, died in the Holy Family Hospital.

She had been shot by an automatic pistol that was in the son's hand. It was said he was cleaning the gun at the time and that it was discharged accidentally.

Odds in Wall Street In Favor of Harding

NEW YORK, July 21.—Wall street is waging two to one in favor of Senator Harding for president.

An examination of market records shows that forecasts of the election of a Republican president have always been accompanied by rising values. Railroad securities have tended downward since the latter part of 1912, beginning with the election of President Wilson. The industrial companies have been more or less unrestricted in marking up prices. The result has been a rising tendency in industrial stocks.

The consensus in banking circles is that favorable developments affecting the money situation will

School Jobs Given New Classification

Plans for the reorganization of the business division of the school department was submitted to the Board of Education today by the Civil Service Board and will be considered tomorrow.

The Civil Service Board changed some of the classifications of positions to conform with classification of other jobs and adjust inequalities in salaries.

Dry Law Violations Charged Oaklanders

SAN FRANCISCO, July 21.—Information charging violation of the national prohibition amendment today were filed in the U. S. district court in San Francisco against three Oakland residents.

Sam Arana, 325 Broadway, and Jani Bruhn, 423 Twelfth street, both were charged with having grape in their possession.

Frank Fields, whose address was not given in the information, was charged with illegally transporting wine. Bench warrants for these three defendants were issued by U. S. Commissioner Francis J. Krull.

Some Blade —
You'll say so!

YOU simply can't believe that such sharpness is possible—until you try a Durham-Duplex blade. A few broad strokes and—there you are—as smooth as the palm of your hand!

It's the scientific sharpening process that does the trick—and back of this the hard, oil-tempered Swedish steel.

They're the longest, strongest, keenest blades on earth—hollow ground, two-edged, detachable and guarded.

Some blade—you'll say so—and "some blade" is right.

Government Acts To Lower Living Costs

The Secretary of War orders immediate release and sale to the American public of all meats declared surplus at extremely low prices.

By the immediate disposal of its entire surplus stock of canned meats, at the extremely low prices at which they will be sold, the Government delivers a powerful blow at the high cost of living.

Corned Beef—Corned Beef Hash—Roast Beef—Bacon

Quality Guaranteed

These commodities were packed by the leading packing houses of North and South America, are in air-tight tins, and will keep for years. The meats were selected by experts, representing both the United States Government and the packing houses, and only the choicest selections were used. They were prepared and packed under this same supervision. Six million men and women in the service of their country, at home and abroad, thrived upon them almost exclusively. And an army of 2,000,000, the principal meat diet of which consisted of Corned Beef—Corned Beef Hash—Roast Beef—Bacon, returned from overseas the healthiest, bravest army the world has known.

Guarantee of Condition

The Government guarantees to deliver these meats in perfect condition. The most rigid inspection was made of these products as they were packed and every single can carries with it the guarantee of the Government to stand back of it, both as to quality and condition.

The Corned Beef, Corned Beef Hash, and Roast Beef are packed mainly in one and two-pound cans—some in six-pound cans. The bacon is packed in 12-pound cans.

Distribution—Nationwide

Every available outlet will be used in distributing these meats. Every retailer, from the smallest to the largest, whether he carries groceries or not, will perform a duty he rightfully owes to every citizen in his community by acting as a medium through which these meats will be distributed at the very low prices at which they can be sold.

Every wholesaler, caterer, hotel, restaurant, state institution, municipality, and industrial organization maintaining co-operative purchasing bureaus, as well as every housewife, can and should share in and extend in every possible manner the common benefits of this event.

For Home Consumption Only

These goods are not being offered for export. This decision of the Secretary of War to distribute them through every possible channel is made in order that the American people, as a whole, may benefit directly by the extremely low prices at which these meats will be sold.

Because of the wide publicity to be given to the prices at which the Government will sell these meats, the American people will at once recognize and appreciate the spirit of co-operation to lower the living costs rendered by every retailer who participates in the distribution of these commodities. The immense benefits which will accrue to him cannot be measured in dollars and cents.

Particulars of Campaign

The prices at which the Government will sell these meats, terms of payment, units of purchase, and where stored, as well as how the Government is prepared to help the retailers distribute them, will be announced in the course of a few days.

Particulars of this campaign, the biggest sale of canned meats ever undertaken, will be furnished when completed by any of the Depot Officers, at the following addresses:

HONUS MITZE IS IN CHARGE OF OAKLAND BASEBALL TEAM

JIMMY DUFFY AND WILLIE ROBINSON CLASH IN MAIN EVENT OF BOXING SHOW AT AUDITORIUM

DEL HOWARD WILL DO HIRING AND FIRING; MITZE BOSS ON FIELD

Fitzsimmons and Ragan Going to Bakersfield; Local Club Playing Real Ball Again

By EDDIE MURPHY

George Elmer (Del) Howard is no longer managing the Oakland team from the bench. When the Oaks started on their road trip three weeks ago, Howard looked after the financial end for the club and put the handling of the club on the field in full charge of Honus Mitze, who some years ago managed the Oaks. Howard was not on the bench yesterday afternoon when the Oaks defeated the Seals in the first game of their series. Del saw the game from the grandstand and let Mitze boss the boys on the diamond.

Howard made no announcement of his intention to let Mitze have full charge of the team on the field until this morning when asked why he wasn't on the bench yesterday. "I looked after the business affairs of the club on the last road trip, Mitze handled the ball club, and did a good job of it," Howard said. "I am going to let him handle the team from now on. I am not going to interfere with him. He is what Del Howard has to say this morning when asked to explain his absence from the bench.

Howard Will Hire and Fire Oakland Players

Howard will still do the hiring and firing. Del is tickled over the fact that the club is going and is no longer ashamed to step out to his favorite movie.

Howard has not retired as manager of the club was made plain yesterday when he announced the voluntary retirement of Tommy Fitzsimmons, and that he has advised Pat Ragan to go to Bakersfield with Tommy and try to get into shape. Ragan caught a bad cold shortly after coming to the local club and he hasn't been able to shake it out of his pitching arm. If he can get into shape before the close of the season, Del will bring him back, as the grandstand manager thinks the Oaks still have a fighting chance to cop the bunting, and if they don't they will have the satisfaction of making the winners fight for it.

Ernest Allen, the new southpaw secured by the Oaks from the Detroit Tigers, will make his first appearance in a game on the bay diamonds tomorrow afternoon when the Oaks and Seals will meet in a double-header at the Oakland park. Secretary Fieble, McFarlin, announced this morning that Allen will pitch one of the two games. Allen is a big fellow, just 21, and has won his first three starts for the Oaks. When he first joined the team three years ago he enlisted in the army and went overseas for two years. Allen pitched in a number of games in the service.

The Oaks needed to beat the Seals yesterday in order to stay out of the basement. The Sacramento Coyotes hung a double defeat on the Beavers at Sacramento. Bill Rodgers' gang is only one point below the Oaks.

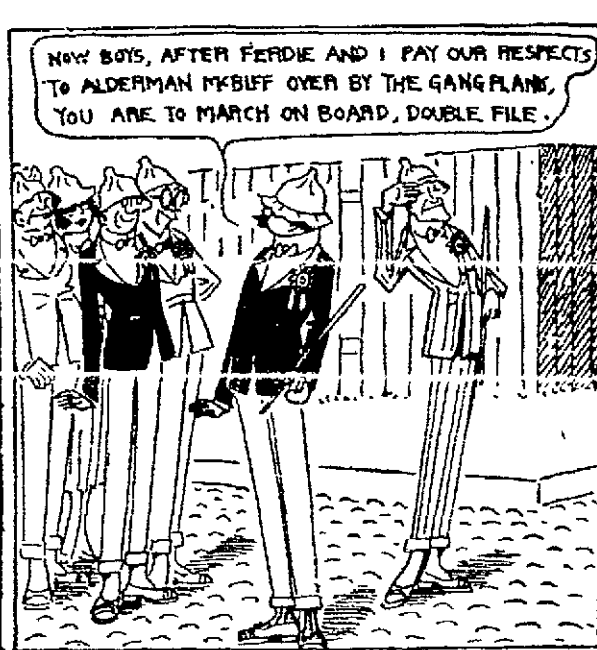

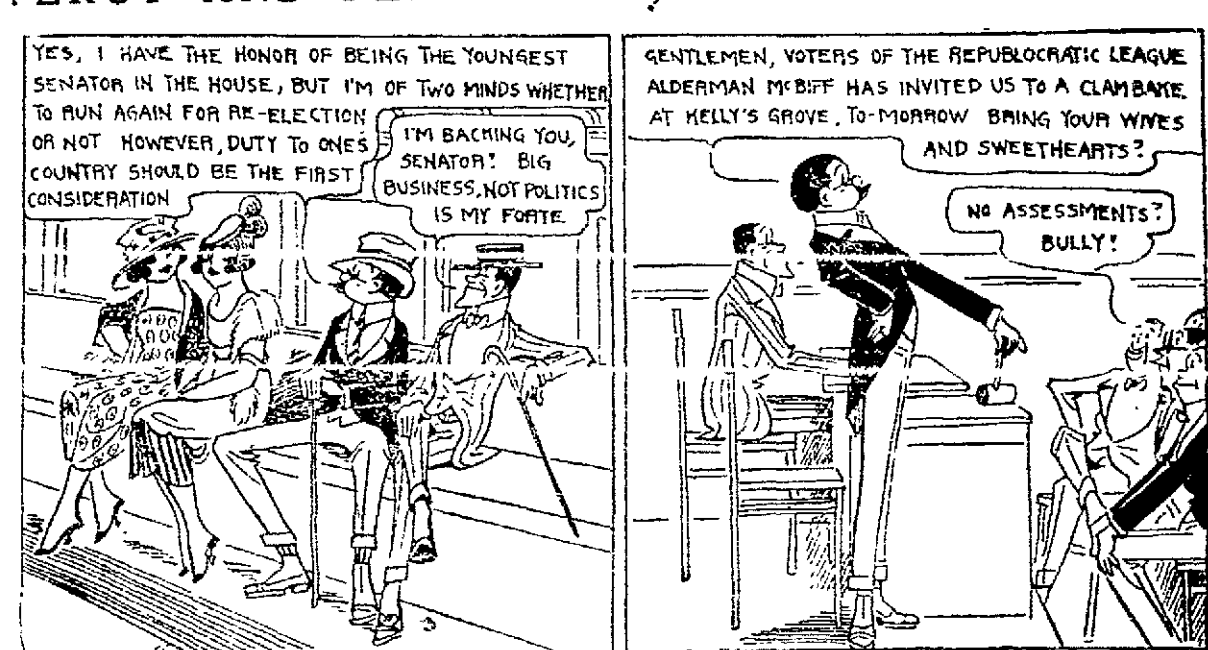

The Beavers were whitewashed in both games. Fittery scored 5 to 0 shutdown, and Penner scored a 2 to 0 one.

What a surprise it was! The Seattle Rainiers defeated the Salt Lake Bees at Salt Lake by a 10 to 4 score. And while all that was happening, the Vernon Tigers were defeating the Angels 3 to 1.

A homer by Babe Borton in the third inning with J. Mitchell on the Oaks gave the Tigers their win.

Bill Kenworthy, the best hitter for the Seattle club, landed on

PERCY AND FERGIE—Yes, Politics is an Uncertain Game

TOM CARROLL'S BOY WILL OPPOSE DOOLAN IN FIRST BOUT HERE

Likely Youngster From the Fruitvale District May Some Day Make Mark Among Heavies

By BOB SHAND

Take a good look at Jack Daly tonight when he hooks up with Dick Doolan at the Auditorium. Jack was placed on the card last night by Matchmaker Simpson after Jack Ellis had announced that he would be unable to appear, and out Fruitvale way they think they see the next heavyweight champion in Mister Daly. The lad has been playing the bush circuit for the past few months and has knocked out most of his opponents. He is a bit green yet and has not reached the full development, but they do say he is good enough to hold his own with any of the four-round light-heavyweights. Then his name is not Daly at all, but Carroll, and he is the son of Tom Carroll, constable of Fruitvale, and at one time the champion hammer thrower of the world. Every member of the Carroll family is a giant and an athlete. For generations they figured prominently in the Highland games in Scotland and the American branch of the family has been famous at local athletic meets for many years. If breeding counts for anything, "Jack Daly" will amount to something in the ring.

Willie Robinson, the blonde milkman, is being conceded a great chance against Jimmy Duffy by the Broadway boys, and even Jimmy's closest friends think he will have his hands full in the old timer. Robinson must have discovered the well known fountain of youth in the dairy cow pasture. He is looking better today than he was ten years ago when he was a scrawny kid.

Frankie Edwards and the other Frankie of by-gone days. His work against Johnny Webster was sensational as it was unexpected and he figures to give young Mr. Duffy a hard time. Webster was a local boy who came up with the coast champion. It will take all of Jimmy's skill and known skill to outdistance him. Then it will never do for Jimmy Duffy to go east and have to tell the folks back there that he just got licked by a milkman named Robinson. They don't know anything about it. Willie nor how tough he is back there and James won't be much of a draw. Jimmy card if he does not cop the decision he will have to fight.

The winner of the Frankie Denny-Johnny Sweeney bout has been promised a match with Jack Reeves next week—provided it is any kind of a fight. If they hang on and stall they will be kept where they are among the preliminaries, but the Reeves match awaits the winner if they open up and do some regular fighting. Sweeney proved last week that he is a practically invulnerable, tough and expert fighter. He is being called a "real tough" by the crowd.

Wild Bill Reed, the hard-hitting heavyweight who held Wilder Bill Shaffer to an even break last week, will meet Mr. James Barry tonight. Reed will have height and weight and reach in his favor but Barry has met the big kid before and come out on top. This is going to be another hard contest.

Frankie Rogers, a protégé of Charlie Swinehart, will make his debut with Joe Ketchel on the other end of the post. Nobody can accuse Rogers of picking an easy one for his fight here. Manuel Freitas, a clever youngster from the East Oakland district, will box Alix McDonald, winner of the flyweight championship at a recent tourney held across the bay. The curtain raiser will be furnished by Mickey O'Donnell and Frankie Greb. W. C. Cleary and L. S. Kavanagh will act as judges and Louis Bernstein will keep time.

The athletic committee at Mare Island is planning a big boxing show for Labor day with a pair of ten-round bouts at the top of the card. Ed Hawke and Joe Ketchel are likely to meet in one of the long distance bouts as the sailors are still talking about their last scrap on the Fighting Line. They went six rounds to a draw on that occasion and it was some considerable battle.

Ketchel and Bat Hurley meet on the twenty-ninth of this month at Bepelia.

This Johnny Wilson laddie must be some bear of a world's champion. At Syracuse last evening a youth named Young Fisher, entirely unknown to fame or fortune and an entire stranger to the well known record book, gave the "champion" a fine lesson. Who is "Young Fisher" you will ask and who answers "Who was Johnny Wilson? Shades of Stanley Leitch! Joe Thomas, Billy Frank, Frankie Kline and other middleweights who could fight. First thing we know Frankie Denny will disappear and come back with the middleweight championship of the world. It looks just that easy.

Irish Can't Compete As Separate Nation

BRUSSELS, July 21.—After an exchange of correspondence with the British Olympic committee, the executive committee of the Olympic games has refused Ireland permission to participate in the seventh Olympiad as a separate nation.

The Irish athletes refused to compete under the British flag and wrote the Olympic executive stating that they would enter in a number of events if they were allowed individual standing. The Belgian executive, facing a delicate situation, sought to gain Great Britain's consent, but failed.

SIERRA WINS ANOTHER

The Sierra club added another win to their long string of victories by defeating the Mission Theatre nine from San Francisco, 9 to 1. "Baton" Camara hurled good ball, while Hunt held him up in great style. Keong and Oliver played their game with the Sierra club and made good with a fresh SIERRA CLUBE MISSION THEATRE.

Entries Are in for National Guard Meet

Entries from all over the central part of the State have been received for the first annual National Guard track and field championship that will be held Friday night at the San Francisco armory on Mission street.

The men entered include many of the best athletes of Stanford, California and Santa Clara universities as well as many well known Olympic club stars.

Following the track events the officers and men will entertain with a dance. The public is invited to witness the track meet and then participate in the dance.

Our Sale of Shoes for men and little men -a tremendous success!

Showing Conclusively That the Public Appreciate Real Values

On the first of this month we were suddenly confronted with the problem of finding space for about $40,000 worth of

for which we are sole Oakland Agents.

These shoes were carried in Roos Bros.' store—the department in that store having been owned and operated by us ever since

C. J. Heeseman who operated Oakland's most successful clothing store, first opened his doors, over twenty years ago! When Roos Bros. succeeded Heeseman, our arrangement carried over. Under the terms of our lease, the department was supposed to be operated by Roos Bros. In reality it was always ours.

On July 1st, 1920, OUR RENT WAS DOUBLED—in face of the fact that the public were clamoring against the high cost of living. We dared not add to expense, so we moved the entire stock to our already crowded and busy store.

Is Your Skin Ablaze With Fiery Itchings?

Don't Continue to Suffer Because of Wrong Treatment.

At last science has determined the real source of all skin diseases, and with this enlightenment comes the reason why the prevailing treatment heretofore used has proven such a complete failure. It has been proven that impurities in the blood cause millions of tiny disease germs to set up their attack on the surface of the skin, and in the form of pimples, boils, scaly eruptions and itchy, burning irritations, begin their disgusting and destructive work.

Being in the blood, these disease germs can be reached only through the blood, and local applications

SIR THOMAS LIPTON IN FAIR WAY TO REALIZE AMBITION

Masterful Seamanship of Captain Burton Silences Rumors Regarding His Removal

ON BOARD STEAM YACHT VICTORIA, July 21.—Convinced that an ambition cherished for twenty years is about to be realized and the America's cup be lifted by a yacht flying his flag, Sir Thomas Lipton watched Shamrock IV win a second and clean-cut victory over the cup defender Resolute yesterday, jubilant as a boy out of school.

Part of the joy aboard the Victoria arose from the fact that triumph came when hope had all but been abandoned that the races could finish within the time limits. Half way down the second leg of the three-sided course the sloops were flopping lazily along with never a good breeze in sight. The sea was only with calm. They bumped and wallowed with slanting sails and the time limit more than half expired.

There was no discouragement in the high sportman and his friends. Shamrock had sailed as never before the race meeting began. Coming from behind after a poor start and trouble at the start and her balloon jib out of business when most needed, she had stolen by the wallowing Resolute.

Down the first leg she had turned a disadvantage of a mile or more into a lead of more than four miles at the first turn. The change came just before the second turn.

Without warning the breeze hauled clear around and swept in from the south and the sea, almost off the Jersey coast, it caught the Shamrock first. Jib and great lowering main sail went flapping to port to meet it. Stronger and stronger came, and like a live thing, the green boat went heeling down toward the marker with white water under her forefoot for the first time that day. A wild shout went up from the Victoria's deck as the Shamrock rounded and started the home stretch with the wind over her starboard quarter. Hitting her ahead with a strong, forced smaller steam craft of excursion fleet to hustle to keep up.

NINE MINUTES BEHIND
The American yacht was nine minutes or more behind when she turned to follow Shamrock, then far up the harbor. She threw her balloon jib and the Resolute swung off to starboard and kept bearing steadily off toward the buoy and his great main and club for the quartering breeze, while Shamrock rocked along under a spinnaker. The gap between the two widened as the Resolute drew out on a course diagonally away from the lights at the buoy.

Excitement was intense aboard the Victoria. Two hundred guests of Sir Thomas Lipton and a few of the crew could not be reached within the limit. Overhead the navy "blimp" C-10 rolled. She seemed to make out the finish and it seemed certain the British boat would win by ten minutes to spare. A shout greeted the news.

RECEPTION FOR TOM
When Shamrock rushed over the line cheer after cheer went up on the Victoria, but officers on the bridge, watches in hand, were silent. They were counting off the seconds of the defender's time allowance. The handicap under which Shamrock labored because of greater sail spread.

After the Resolute crossed the Victoria stood up close to the Shamrock to send her a cheer. Sir Thomas was almost dancing with joy. His friends gathered on the foredeck and hailed him with cheers and shouts of commendation and congratulation.

Of Captain Burton, who sailed the great boat to victory today, many questions raised as to his skill after previous encounters and to Captain Thomas Nicholson, who was the winning craft. He characterized himself as an onlooker and said the credit was his.

An impromptu reception in honor of the victory was started in the dining room. While passing congratulatory words outside, Sir Thomas heard men most of them felicitations of several nationalities, pay their respects to him as a sportsman.

Bushrod All Stars Lose to Woodmen

On July 20 another win for the Modern Woodmen. The Bushrod All-Stars were the losers in a game played at Bushrod. The Modern Woodmen won by a score of 10 to 0. BE ON GUARD!

A peculiar situation has developed in connection with the agitation for a freeholders' special election of citizens to draft a charter for a consolidated city and county government. The voters of Alameda county should thoroughly understand this situation, for they are going to be appealed to for more than one decision.

At a recent meeting of officials and citizens representing business and commercial organizations a call was issued for a large conference to be held in Oakland on August 6th to discuss plans for a consolidated government and procedure for effecting the consummation of this project, if that should at this time seem appropriate. There have been invited to this conference the county supervisors, the officials of the several municipalities in the county, representatives of the chambers of commerce, the Merchants' Exchange and of many other business and civic associations throughout the county.

The first object of this conference is to bring about the exchange of views on the form and character of consolidation desirable and ascertain whether it is possible to formulate a plan on which there can be unanimous agreement by all the municipalities and the county districts. To do this is urgent. Unless there is complete agreement there will be no consolidation. County division may result instead.

Such a conference would provide the people with much valuable information as to the nature of the specific project they might be asked to initiate by petitioning for a special freeholders' election. They now are deficient in such information. Unless some plan is presented on which there can be complete agreement the special election ought not be inflicted upon the county; it and the charter adoption election which would follow would entail a cost of over $100,000.

Mayor Davis has made the unassailable sound proposal that at this large joint conference a special committee be appointed to draw up a provisional charter which would represent the harmonious views of all the cities and the outside districts. This draft charter would then be available to all the voters for their study and examination. Then the voters could proceed intelligently.

The mayors of Piedmont, Emeryville, Hayward, Livermore and Alameda agree with Mayor Davis. So does President Cole of Oakland Chamber of Commerce President Spiro of the Merchants' Exchange and every other business man, taxpayer and thinking citizen who has given the subject any attention.

Plainly the least that should be done in common decency before any reputable person should agitate with petitions for a freeholders' election is to await the joint conference of August 6th at which the views of the municipalities and outside districts other than Oakland may be ascertained. This is the courteous thing to do, the moral and business way of dealing with the subject. It is the only way of avoiding irreconcilable antagonisms, the only way to escape certain failure for the consolidation idea.

But despite all these considerations the editor of an Oakland newspaper has taken upon himself all the virtue of being right, all the heavy responsibility of circulating initiatory petitions for a freeholders' election at once. He ignores the judgment of citizens in every walk of life who have had the affairs of Oakland and all Alameda county at heart for many years instead of a few months. He ignores the moral right of whole cities and outlying country district to be heard in their own defense before they are burdened with a series of expensive elections. He scorns consideration of the item of expense. He is content to take his immature obsession as the sole sponsorship for a county-wide freeholders' election; he has no other sponsorship.

And a sadder phase of the matter is that this individual promoter of a freeholders' election is not half so much concerned with a constructive outcome as he is with applying his agitation to the promotion of a private business enterprise. In serving self and private business, he is jeopardizing the whole movement of consolidation. Now those persons who endorse petitions and sign petitions for a special election should remember that while they may permit another person to enjoy the leadership in an agitation, they must take their full share of the responsibility should the burden of futile and stupidly conceived special elections be forced upon the public.

Any effort to impose a plan of consolidation on which there has not been previous agreement upon the county must inevitably fail. There can be no agreement until the plan is known in detail. Therefore to petition for a freeholders' election now is to invite certain failure; to wreck utterly the fine idea of harmonious, county-wide unity. The people must be on guard against the folly of those who will not see and against the evil designs of those who would wreck the unity of the great Eastbay district.

THE RAILWAY WAGE AWARD.

In its first decision the United States Railway Labor Board, created by the Transportation Act of last March, has aimed at the comprehensive settlement of the railroad wage controversy. In so doing it has increased the compensation of about 1,900,000 workers and imposed upon the railroads of the country a new operating charge of about $600,000,000 annually. This large sum will have to be raised in freight and passenger traffic charges against the users of the railroads, and it amounts to about $6 per capita for every man, woman and child in the continental United States.

The public will not complain however, if it believes, as it will, that the labor adjustment board based its decisions in a rule of equitable and just consideration for the workers, railway efficiency and for the public. The board avers that it has taken cognizance of seven factors—the scale paid for similar kinds of work in other industries, the relation between wages and the cost of living, the hazards of employment, training and skill required, degree of responsibility, character and regularity of the employment, and inequalities in increases and treatment resulting from previous wage orders.

Its analysis of these factors in the wage award shows that the board made a careful and painstaking examination. Inasmuch as the increases allowed are sixty per cent of the demands of the workers, it must be accepted that the arbitrators made a more generous award than is usual in such cases. All classes, with the exception of the outlay yardmen's association headed by John Grunau of Chicago, are given substantial increases in wages.

Engineers, firemen and helpers in the yard service got the largest raise—eighteen cents an hour, or $1.44 a day on the eight-hour basis. Other classes got an increase of fifteen cents an hour, or $1.20 a day, and the majority of the workers got thirteen cents an hour, or $1.04 a day. About five-sixths of the total number of employees affected got an increase of $1 a day or more. The average increase for all the workers is twenty-one percent.

The award will be accepted by the railroad operators, because they have the recourse of going to the Interstate Commerce Commission for a raise in traffic rates and under the transportation law their request must be granted. The public will accept the award because it has no alternative. The public's representatives on the wage board presumably voted for the increase. The workers may accept or not. If they do not accept they can strike and threaten strikes further to harass the nation's business and obstruct prosperity. It is not likely that any further increase will be granted them on the showing they have made.

But there is every reason to believe that the workers will abide by the decision. They may complain against it, according to custom but the sound judgment which the majority of the railroad workers have shown in the past warrants the expectation that they will accept. If they do this promptly and cheerfully, they will make themselves more popular with the public through brushing aside anxiety as to the future.

If the whole railroad problem could be considered settled a great load would be taken from business and industry. The wage board has recognized this fact and has drafted a generous award in amiable terms. It has made the wage increases retroactive to May 1 and prescribed the method by which the back pay shall be made. It has provided for speedy hearing of disputes which may arise over the interpretation of any clauses in the award. On the whole the board has given evidence of a sound comprehension of its duties and its ability to serve a long evident want.

In one of its recent sessions the Prussian Diet rejected a proposal of an Independent Socialist to declare confiscated to the State the large fortune at the disposal of the Hohenzollerns, said to amount to over $90,000,000. This action was not final, it being desired that the legal committee of the parliament have more time to pursue its investigation. But the interesting fact was developed that among the household articles necessary for daily use that have been forwarded from Berlin to the Holland refuge of former Kaiser Wilhelm are 1000 silver plates. It was only natural that the imaginative Independent Socialist should enquire whether so many silver plates were among the ordinary daily necessities of the Kaiser, and it was typical of the Prussian friends of the Hohenzollerns that he got no satisfactory answer. Perhaps there are others who would like to know, in view of the Allied pledge to bring the former Kaiser to deserved punishment, why the need of 1000 silver plates.

NOTES and COMMENT

Those Republicans who thought the party had at last lost Senator La Follette, as well as those Democrats who were about to congratulate themselves on getting shut of Bryan, were premature. Neither has burned his party bridges as yet, though both are making motions as though there is a prospect of their doing so.

Picture of Petaluma girls in various poses working on the streets of that town to make things tidy against "egg day." How much improvement the streets undergo here, how neat and clean the results in "quite a picture." Not always a belle of a town snaphotted in overalls and welding pickaxes.

The holding of a national political convention in California was such a success that now it is suggested that the next international yacht race be sailed in Pacific coast waters. The sails here are regular, and it would be possible for races to be pulled off as per schedule. This division of the earth is coming into greater notice, indeed.

The Niles Register tells of a plebiscite on chicken pie: "St. James Guild of Centerville will meet with Mrs. S. Sturtevant of Irvington on Thursday, July 22. There has been so much regret over the fact that the ladies had expressed a desire to discontinue serving chicken pie at their annual barrel festival that a committee has been appointed to take a census in the matter."

Perhaps everybody is not aware of the new federal statute which makes it a penal offense to transport a stolen automobile from one State to another. Two men have been found guilty under it in Oregon, and sentenced to three years' incarceration in a federal prison. If State laws were as rigorously enforced this very common modern form of thievery might be checked.

Story of Governor Coolidge, who is rusticated on his father's farm, wearing his grandfather's boots made in 1858. It is safe to doubt whether the candidate for vice-president sixty-two years hence will find surviving footgear of an ancestor to pull on as he goes about the rural chores during his vacation. In this day footgear is not built as it was in 1858.

The Vermont suffragists are threatening to go to the Supreme Court to test the constitutionality of the governor's veto of the legislature's approval of the nineteenth amendment. The governor is obdurate. He vetoes what the legislature did, and refuses to call an extra session so that it can do it again. The East hasn't much on the South in this suffrage business.

The Red Bluff News contributes to the Japanese controversy. "The best way to meet the Jap peril is to do some of the things the Japs are doing. Raising vegetables and children, for instance."

The Stockton Record expresses itself as to popular government: "Looks as if popular government was having as many candidates as there are people with grievances in a nation, judging by the more candidates promised from the so-called third party meeting."

The action of the San Francisco bar in protesting the dismissal of the police court graft cases reflects the public sentiment. The Bar Association is not given to precipitate action of this kind. The necessity of doing something must be very pressing.

Sailor superstitions crop up in connection with the yacht race. The skipper's wife has been acting as timekeeper of the Shamrock, and the question has been raised by the crew whether that isn't the cause of the Lipton ill luck. As the world gets older it loses some of its peculiar traits, but some of its superstitions persist with much pertinacity.

Home-made joke from the Chico Enterprise: "One of the supervisors yesterday, disgusted at the futile bailing out of a native country engineer, voted for Hill. So far as is known, this is the first time a 'Californian' has recognized an Arizona locality."

SPIRIT of the STATE PRESS

The Egyptian princess who raised such a hub in a San Francisco courtroom last week by trying to vamp the judge has vamped the defendant who was suing her for having swindled him out of $10,000. She married him yesterday and three days ago he publicly said he was through with her for life. From the looks of the judge who ordered her out of the courtroom immediately when she appeared in a velvety costume just barely escaped with his official dignity—Chico Enterprise.

San Diegans are peeved over having been incoined into buying shark meat when they thought they were getting habichuelas, a kind of sea weed, and other nice fish. They wouldn't be so sore over eating the shark meat if they hadn't paid from 15 cents to 20 cents a pound for it when the stuff sells as fertilizer at $1.50 a ton—Stockton Record.

What a present splurge of fame does not do to entirely in the political world the two conventions have accorded her. With Cleveland leading the American League and Cleveland working high among the National and Ohio having a show for the world series—this indeed was the Ohio year. Palo Alto Times.

Harold Bell Wright, who has some of the best sellers in his credit, has obtained a divorce from his wife on the grounds of desertion. Having written "The Winning of Barbara Worth," could he not produce as his next phenomenal book "The Losing of Mrs. Wright"—Sacramento Bee.

TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIPS

The victory of William T. Tilden of Philadelphia over Gerald L. Patterson of Australia, at Wimbledon yesterday, leaves an American in possession of the much coveted lawn tennis championship of England. Tilden won his way by hard and strenuous efforts, routing seven opponents in turn in order to acquire the right to challenge Patterson, the holder of the title. Some what handicapped by a wrenched knee, the Philadelphia had to come from behind to gain victory in the final, for he lost the first set by 2-6, but from then on he never left the issue in doubt, taking the next three sets out in one easy way and 6-4. It was really a notable achievement.

In the men's doubles championship America was again to the fore. Charles Garland of Pittsburg and R. Norris Williams of Boston won the final from Lieut. Col. Kingscott and Maj. Parke of the British Davis cup team. They emulated the feat of Tilden, for they also lost the first set, but by playing a brilliantly concerted game they succeeded in annexing the next three sets and with them the championship title.

These upholders of American national fame are to be congratulated on their well deserved triumphs, for pitted against them were representatives of old and new civilizations, of the East and the West. For example, among the eight men who fell before Tilden in his all-conquering career there were three Englishmen, two Australians, one American, one Irishman and one Japanese. France, Belgium, Greece, Roumania, Egypt and South Africa were also represented at different stages of the contest. It is a satisfaction to find that the United States athletes are able to hold their own against all comers. They show the same fine spirit of enterprise, courage and determination to win as characterized our boys amidst shot and shell at Chateau Thierry or in the forest of the Argonne.—Washington Post.

TESTIMONY EXPLAINED.

To the Editor of The Tribune: Your report in today's paper, 18th, does not correctly represent my testimony before the Congressional immigration committee in two important respects, intermarriage and the wisest settlement of the very complex immigration problem. I therefore ask you to print this brief letter as a correction.

As to intermarriage, there were two replies: "Marriage to be successful, whether within one's own race or with another race, is founded on social equality." There was nothing to indicate the equality, inferiority or superiority of the two races involved. The whole thing has to do with the two people concerned. Under these limitations, with the experiences of many, I saw no objection to intermarriage. The other question had to do with the wisdom of intermarriage between Americans and Japanese. I stated that under present conditions in California, and in view of the prejudice, I would not recommend it.

When asked if I favored a discriminatory immigration law, I replied "entirely no," but I did advocate leaving everything to the Japanese government. It is a domestic question. If the present gentleman's agreement is not working satisfactorily, it should be revised or a special treaty should be drawn. I believe that the Japanese government will agree to anything that is reasonable. And this is the course that should be followed until such time as the government of the United States is willing to provide a law, general in character, which is without discrimination. Among the reasons I assigned for this special consideration are: Japan is a member of the watershed of advanced nations, she was our ally in the war in a very real and helpful sense, and the net immigration for the past

HEALTH and HADINESS

Why Your Mind Depends On Keen Senses for Clear Ideas

By Dr. LEONARD K. HENDERSON, A. B., M. A., M. D. (Johas. Hopkins University.)

What is termed seeing, hearing, tasting, smelling and feeling may be described as pictorializations performed through the instrumentality of the eyes, nose, ears, mouth and the body generally.

Most persons are unaware that they recognize things by their manner when they think they know their flavor. Moreover, they do not know that they taste some things with one part of the tongue only and some with another, while some parts of the tongue are devoid of taste.

Professor H. L. Hollingworth has recently been making exhaustive experiments with a view to solving the mystery of taste. He has demonstrated that sense of taste reaches the other senses through the central exchange called brain mainly through the ear nerves.

Various nerves in the tongue communicate with the main nerve which acts as a kind of telephone exchange to ring up central. The taste nerves for the tongue concentrate in the ear drum. If this nerve is injured the sense of taste becomes dulled and it is well known that deaf persons lose their perceptions of taste. The things you perceive and the opportunities given you in your lifetime depend on small degree upon the health of your senses.

One of your most vigorous and helpful senses, the muscle sense, cannot be cultivated academically. It grows upon what it feeds, notably motion, action, deeds and realities. You may train and cultivate your senses of vision, hearing, touch, taste and smell all very comfortably while seated in a chair reading, looking, listening or eating. Many people do this. Obviously, they are often unable to test their sensations in terms of the hard realities of a story physical world.

A true perception of things as they are is more nearly approached, therefore, when all your normal, healthy senses behave correctly, especially the muscle sense. A perception that has only a few of the senses and their sensations may be a perturbed, tasty, melodious creation untested by movement and exercise.

The pointed moral and admonition is, therefore, that a healthy mind depends upon a normal, well set of anatomical structures, especially the muscle sense at work simultaneously with the other senses. This will do away with lost opportunities, false perceptions of apparitions, spectacles and so-called outboard manifestations. Then, in truth, you may pride yourself upon your good common sense, but not until then.

INSANITY PLEA IS LIKELY FOR WOMAN SLAYER

Temporary insanity induced by worry over circumstances affecting the honor of herself and children will be the defense of Mrs. Emma Freitas charged with murder for the shooting of her husband, Tony Freitas, on April 10. This was indicated by questions propounded to day to prospective jurors by Attorney Nathan Coughlan, counsel for the defense.

Coughlan asked the jurors if they would take into consideration that Mrs. Freitas was driven temporarily insane at the time of the shooting and that her mind might also have been affected when she made certain alleged admissions to the police after her arrest.

Mrs. Freitas, a frail woman of 25, is accused of having shot her husband in a jealous rage at Twenty-third avenue and the railroad tracks. Fear that he would take a motor-cycle trip with another woman is alleged to have prompted the action. The verdict of the coroner's jury was that Freitas died of gunshot wounds inflicted by his wife with "criminal intent." In his dying statement Freitas forgave the wife. Mrs. Freitas declared she hoped he would recover. Immediately following the shooting, however, she is quoted as saying:

REPEATED SLAYING

"I would rather have him dead than know he had gone with another woman." Later she cried:

"I'm sorry I did it. I love him."

Freitas lived at 2530 East Tenth street. She was employed by the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Company. The two daughters, Evelyn and Violet, 6 and 4 years old, are being cared for by Mrs. Albert Nichol, sister of Mrs. Freitas.

The prosecution will attempt to prove that after Freitas had left home his wife sought him at the cigar store owned by his brother, Joe Freitas, at Twenty-third avenue and Railroad avenue. Not finding him there, Mrs. Freitas is alleged to have gone into the store and on the pretense that she wanted some chocolate, took a gun from the store, and coming back later, met her husband there.

THREAT IS REPORTED

Joe Freitas is alleged to have heard Mrs. Freitas say that she "would get her husband if he should wait all night."

The shooting is said to have followed a quarrel in front of the cigar store which ended with Freitas saying: "What are you going to do about it?" Mrs. Freitas is said to have drawn the gun and fired at her husband. The first shot missed and Freitas started to run, but a second shot struck him in the back. Freitas died four days later at the Merritt hospital.

TOM MOORE, who appears in "The Great Accident," at the American this week.

"We're both stars and we don't claim all the glory," says Moore; "Same Here," says Peters.

There's no jealousy among male film stars, even if rumor says so. Sometimes exists among the fair sex. Take Tom Moore and House Peters for instance. Their new film, "The Great Accident," is playing this week at the American. The management wanted to know which to run first on the bill—and felt out the stars to see if there was any "personal feeling," said Moore. "Pete and I are great friends—and men never are jealous. 'Same here,' said 'Pete,' otherwise House Peters. Tom Moore is starred in 'The Great Accident' and House Peters in 'Bilk Husbands and Calico Wives.' Advertisement.

Artists Wait Staging of 'Quest'; Dancers Add Color to Drama

Hume's Original Conception
Is Elaborated for Greek
Theater Presentation

BERKELEY, July 21.—Not only the elaborate production which is promised and personnel of the large cast in "The Quest," which will be presented for the first time in the Greek Theatre on Thursday night, July 22, is focusing attention in art circles, but the fact as well that the masque was written by a local man, Professor Samuel Hume. Hume originally conceived the piece of dramatic work under the title of "Cranbrook Masque." It was written to dedicate a Greek amphitheatre on the country estate of George C. Booth, near Detroit. The details of the original spectacle have been elaborated with the introduction of an Elizabethan episode, additional dance and musical numbers.

Miss Katherine Edson, who has been identified with the summer session of the University of California and who will return soon to the Pavly-Oukrainsky ballet, is directing the dancing in the colorful spectacle. Eight young women will participate in the Greek episode classic dances. Miss Naomi Allee has been chosen for the solo dance in the Renaissance episode. English country folk dances, the Morris and sword dances, will be introduced into the Elizabethan episode. They are being supervised by Theodore Viehman of the faculty.

A choir of women's voices is being rehearsed for the six vocal numbers which mark the masque by Frederick Alexander, director of music at the University Summer School.

BLIMP SIGHTS WHALE; FORGETS U. S. CUP RACE

276 Pounds Lost in 7 Months By Work

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 21.—Emory Titman, who a year ago claimed all records for weight for his age, has cashed in enough bets to keep him in smokes for another year no matter what "reformers" do to weighing 623 pounds, decided to reduce. His friends joshed him, and he began to waver, saying that he would be down to 400 by his thirty-first birthday. He volunteered as a laundryman and worked almost continuously in the steam room. The fat began to roll off, and then he went about among his friends waging more cigars than he would be down to 350 by July. These friends gathered about him as he got on the scales and looked on in amazement when the dial registered 347. His farmers in the Lake Wabigoon district rich.

CANADA SOLDIER SETTLERS ARE MAKING GOOD

SASKATOON, Sask., July 21.—The fertile prairies of Saskatchewan have provided farm homes for a large proportion of Canada's soldier settlers, who are proving an important factor in the rapid development of the West.

The Soldier Settlement board, up to April 10, had approved loans of $12,533,711 for soldier settlers in Saskatchewan out of a total of $59,894,115 for the entire dominion. The number of the loans was 3182 out of 15,540.

There were on that date 896 soldier settlers, established on the farms in Saskatchewan out of a total of 13,497 throughout the dominion and 9266 soldiers had qualified for settlement out of a total of 37,005. Saskatchewan also had 89 men studying agriculture out of a total of 517.

Of the approximately $60,000,000 in loans approved $32,704,744 was for the purchase of land; $1,850,944 for the renewal of encumbrances; $6,559,458 for permanent improvements, and $18,768,999 for livestock and equipment.

A report issued by the Soldier Settlement board shows that 6625 soldiers have taken free land under soldier grants in the four western provinces.

COMMITTEE TO ADVANCE NEW GARBAGE PLAN

Plans and specifications for disposing of Oakland's garbage will be outlined next Tuesday when the committee of fifteen just appointed by Mayor Davis to investigate the problem will hold its first meeting in the council chambers of the city hall.

The appointment of the committee was made yesterday afternoon by the mayor at the suggestion of District Attorney Ezra Decoto, who represented the Oakland Scavengers' Association at a special hearing of the city council. The question was brought up when many objections to the garbage plan proposed by City Attorney H. L. Hagan developed several days ago.

The following are members of the committee:

Marston Campbell, chief of construction for the new school building program.

Captain William I. Day, representing the Salvation Army.

Charles I. Decoto, the Apartment House Owners' Association.

W. C. Jurgens, Hotel Owners' Association.

Fred Schulz, Restaurant Owners' Association.

Ernest F. Fuller, Merchants' Exchange.

A. R. Derge, Downtown Property Owners' Association.

Thomas E. Decoto, Oakland Western Paper Company.

Mrs. Grace Williams, Oakland Civic Center.

Mrs. Edward Morgan Jones, Oakland Motor Club.

Ezra Decoto, Oakland Scavengers' Association.

H. C. Capwell, Oakland Dry Goods Association.

Ben Lichtenstein, Junk Dealers' Association.

R. E. Canyon, the Oakland Chamber of Commerce.

25,000 CARS ORDERED WEST TO HAUL GRAIN

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The Car Service Commission today ordered the diversion of twenty-five thousand empty box cars from eastern and southeastern territory to western lines to handle the grain crops, for a period of thirty days beginning July 26. Many of the cars will be taken from New England lines. The order is a renewal of previous orders issued to relieve freight congestion in the west.

Council Moves to Improve Streets

Preparing to complete the extension of the city council today directed City Attorney Hagan to apply to the state railroad commission for permission for a grade crossing at the intersection of Seventh street and the Standard Oil Company and the Standard Oil Company and the General Petroleum Companies, but their acceptance is entirely up to Washington.

The Shell Company has offered oil two cents under the company's retail market price at time of delivery. To exceed 100,000 barrels in gallons of motor gasoline by the Union, the Shell, the Standard Oil Company and the General Petroleum Companies, but their acceptance is entirely up to Washington.

Copyright Privileges Given to Americans

WASHINGTON, July 21.—American authors under a reciprocal plan agreed to by the United States and Great Britain, are granted copyright privileges in Great Britain for works which are published not later than six months after the "actual final termination of the war" between all the Central Powers and the British Government, a date which must be hereafter determined, the State Department announced today. British authors will have the same privileges in the United States.

Wife Said She Would Wait and So She Did

AMERICUS, Ga., July 21.—J. W. Clark left his wife and home here twenty-five years ago. He returned the other day and his wife received him with open arms.

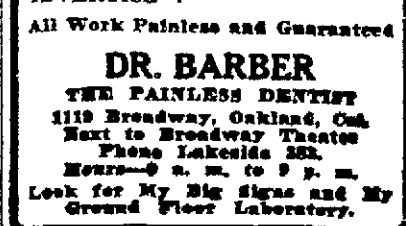

In his absence Clark's two children died, the oldest daughter having been buried three days before his return. When Clark left home he was poor. In Oklahoma oil fields he made a fortune. He wrote his wife several letters, blaming himself for leaving and telling her to get a divorce. She refused and said she would wait.

TO RETURN GORGAS' BODY.
WASHINGTON, July 21.—The body of General Gorgas will be brought to the United States on the army transport Pocahontas. The War Department announced that the transport has been ordered to stop at Southampton, England, on the return trip from Europe to take aboard Mrs. Gorgas.

Conference Upon Auto Ferry Need Set For August 3

ALAMEDA, July 21.—A conference with Southern Pacific officials, President William Sprengle probably to be present, will be held by the official committee on relief of bay automobile ferry congestion on August 3.

C. L. Tildes, chairman of the committee, which is composed of representatives from all bay cities, the boards of supervisors of San Francisco and Alameda counties and chambers of commerce, arranged the conference and announced the date today.

One proposal to relieve the congestion is to construct a highway along Alameda mole and operate a ferry from that point.

NAVAL OIL LACK STILL UNSOLVED

MARE ISLAND, July 21.—The fuel oil situation at Mare Island has not been solved by the acceptance of fuel oil bids reported yesterday from Washington. It developed today that the bids accepted were submitted last May and cover oil that has already been delivered and used.

A temporary arrangement has been made with the Associated Oil Company whereby a barge is proceeding to Port Costa today and drawing 36,000 gallons of oil at $1.72 a barrel. This is enough to last three weeks. Four destroyers at the yard will get away by dividing among them 30,000 gallons of oil drawn from the tanks of the Kanawha, now in drydock.

Last Saturday bids were submitted on 2,450,000 barrels of fuel oil, 65,000 barrels of Diesel oil, 1,023,000 gallons of distillate and 936,000 gallons of motor gasoline by the Union, the Shell, the Standard Oil Company and the General Petroleum Companies, but their acceptance is entirely up to Washington.

THURSDAY LAST DAY TO FILE FOR NOMINATION

With only one more day after today in which to file nomination papers for placing names of candidates on the ballot for the August primaries, only forty persons had filed with County Clerk George E. Gross at noon today. Of these not one is a prohibition or Socialist candidate, though Eugene V. A. Wagner has received word that there will be quite a number of them before the time expires, as numerous petitions are in the field.

The women have filed petitions, one for the office of assemblywoman and two for membership in the Republican county central committee. The following are the candidates filed thus far:

United States senator, Samuel M. Shortridge, William Kent; associate justice Supreme Court, short term, Warren Olney Jr.; presiding justice, first district, Court of Appeal, division one, unexpired term, William H. Waste; presiding justice, first district, division two, William H. Langdon; assistant justice, first district, division two, Frank S. Brittan; John T. Nourse, representative in Congress, sixth district, J. A. Elston; state senator, fifteenth district, Arthur H. Bredt; assemblyman, thirty-fourth district, E. H. Christian, Allen E. Felton; assemblyman, thirty-sixth district, John R. Kelday; Arthur T. MacDonald, Gilbert E. Jones; thirty-seventh district, Clifton E. Brooks; thirty-eighth district, Edgar S. Hurley; thirty-ninth district, David W. Weldt; John G. Anderson, fortieth district, Arthur A. Wendling (both Republican and Democratic nominations); forty-first district, Mrs. Anna L. Saylor (both nominations); supervisor, first district, A. Goulet, Pleasanton; D. Murphy, Livermore; John Galleago, Irvington; fourth district, Redmon C. Staats, Berkeley; fifth district, William F. Lennan Jr., John F. Mullins, M. J. McDonough, Robert S. Wilson, A. J. Trester, Frank C. Merritt, county central committee, Republican, thirty-seventh assembly district, Fred E. Stewart, Oakland; fortieth assembly district, Elmer E. Nichols, Oscar T. Barber, V. F. Morrish, Clarence S. Merritt, Winifred H. Merriman, Blanche Morse, A. G. Briggs; Superior judge, George Samuels, James G. Quinn.

Oiled Rags at Burned Church, Says Witness

FAIRFIELD, July 21.—Testimony showing that rags saturated with oil had been found at the scene of the J. H. Murphy church fire, which destroyed the building at the site mentioned in the charges.

Jejo was introduced yesterday in the trial of Henry Oppertman, wealthy Vallejo apartment house owner, accused of setting fire to the church. The jury was sequestered late yesterday afternoon and C. L. Robertson, a special policeman, and Auditor George Hildreth of Vallejo, were called as the first witnesses.

Robertson testified to finding the oil-soaked rags, and Hildreth gave testimony establishing the existence of the building at the site mentioned in the charges.

And There Was Not Even Plum Pudding Handy

A barrel of wine, in the home of Mrs. John De Luci, proved its quality when it took fire. Efforts of the family to extinguish the blaze failed. Two tons of hay and a wagon were also burned, but the house, at 8517 D street, was saved.

Small fires at the home of Mrs. John De Luci, 3754 Brookdale avenue, and J. H. Mercer, 3290 Hyde street, caused several hundred dollars' damage, but the houses were saved by the fire department.

FOUR OAKLAND AUTOISTS KILLED IN RAIL CRASH

The bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schrimsher, Mrs. Reginald V. Joste, Mrs. Schrimsher's mother, and William Joste, her brother, all of 5728 McCall street, Oakland, who were killed when their automobile was struck by a train at the Alameda station, were being brought to this city, according to Reginald V. Joste, Oakland bookkeeper and husband of Mrs. Joste. When the crash occurred in the stalled car yesterday afternoon, instantly killing Mrs. Joste and injuring Schrimsher's wife and young Joste so that they died within a few hours, it had been raining in a few days. The automobile was rolled more than 120 feet before it was tossed into the ditch by the speeding locomotive.

Coroner T. J. Albright, Ore., identified the bodies when they went through the baggage which had been strapped to the automobile. The young couple's marriage license was found in the wreckage.

Elks Men's Crops; Farmers Helpless

SALEM, Ore., July 21.—Elk herds are damaging crops in the Santiam river country, about 100 miles from here, according to the Governor. Men Elton Hays, who has been released by the state, as Oregon laws decree the sanctuary for people who kill the farmers are to petition the State game warden for relief.

Czech Regrets U.S. Will Leave Europe

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, July 21.—President Tomas Masaryk, the deliverer of the new republic of Czechoslovakia, in conversation with a group of American correspondents, expressed regret that the withdrawal of American troops from the country, which he said, weakened the hand of their entente in settling such vital controversies as that being waged between the Poles and the Czechs over the Teschen coal fields.

President Masaryk declared his belief in the league of nations and said that if America was to leave Europe, it would be a blow to the economic relations with Europe she must also have moral relations.

"America came into the war without any selfish claims. She fought to strengthen the peace and to put it into practice, and ought not to leave it now."

Japan Builds Ten Good Sized Steamers

TOKYO, July 21.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—Ten new steamships, each with a displacement exceeding 1000 tons, have been completed in various private Japanese shipyards during the last month. The combined tonnage of the vessels is 51,850.

SOPHIA VICTIMS COULD HAVE BEEN SAVED, IS CLAIM

JUNEAU, Alaska, July 21.—passengers on board the ill-fated steamer Princess Sophia could have been removed, was the testimony of E. A. McDougall, skipper of the gas boat Amy, who was called to the stand during the hearing of claimants by Attorney Procter Martin.

The Sophia struck a reef and some of the new republic of all on board in October 1918, in Lynn canal. Three hundred and eighty persons were drowned. McDougall said it was possible to have removed the passengers at any time after his arrival on the scene on the morning of the wreck until he left at 5:30 that afternoon.

Attorney Martin is attempting to prove that the Sophia was waiting for the arrival of the Canadian boat Princess Alice instead of putting passengers on American boats standing by.

AMUNDSEN FINDS THE PASSAGE

SEATTLE, Wash., July 2.—A circumnavigation of the globe through the narrow waterway between the Arctic ice pack and the northern edges of Europe and Asia can be claimed, it has been reported, by Roald Amundsen, an explorer who has arrived in Alaska, this summer.

Amundsen cannot claim a continuous journey around the entire rim, however, for the voyage was completed in 1905 when he covered the long-neglected Northwest Passage around America's Atlantic to the Pacific. On that day he sailed westward from Norway, and he arrives at Nome on this trip.

The second leg of the journey being completed this summer, 1918 he again left Norway, this time, around Europe and Asia, and he is expected to arrive at Nome on this trip.

Amundsen is going to Nome for a dash to the North Pole according to Captain George Adolphus Peary, who has been with him here recently after being Amundsen in the north of the Siberian coast.

Amundsen is the discoverer of the South Pole. He refused to let Peary to the North Pole to refute or confirm the claims of the late Rear Admiral Robert E. Peary to the discovery of the northern tip of the world.

AUTO AND CAR CRASH; DRIVER SERIOUSLY HURT

Attempting to spurt ahead of an eastbound street car on Grand avenue while driving his automobile this morning, H. B. Kotz, Oakland merchant, collided head-on with a street car coming in the opposite direction on Grand avenue at 17th street.

Kotz sustained serious injuries. He was taken to the emergency hospital.

Three other persons were injured in street accidents last night.

In a brave attempt to avoid running down two small girls who suddenly appeared directly in front of her car, Elizabeth Sherman, principal of one of the Oakland schools, steered her car towards the sidewalk on Carrington street last night and crashed into an electric pole.

The lighting fixture was bent double and the front part of the car was badly crumpled.

The heavy car barely grazed the skirts of the frightened children as the woman after wrenching the steering wheel and changed the direction of the machine. She was cut by flying glass from the shattered windshield.

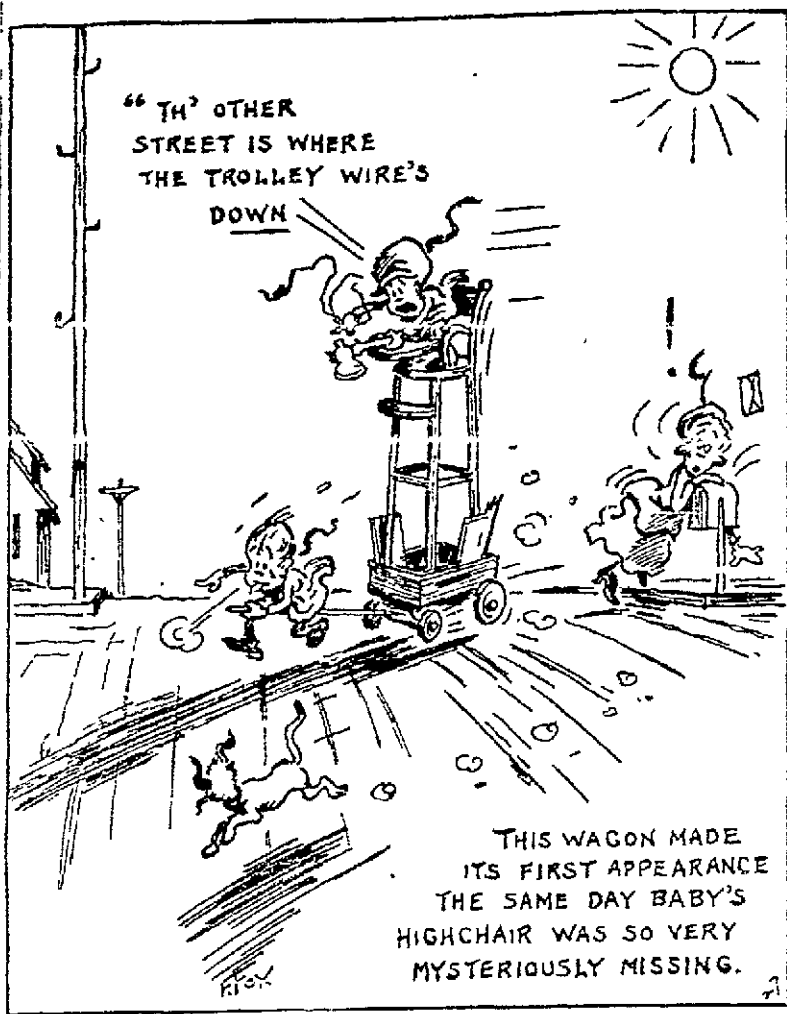

MAN IS RUN DOWN.
E. C. Harris, 39, 3100 Shattuck avenue, an employee of the Marchant Calculating Machine company, was struck by an automobile while on his way home from work last night and rendered unconscious. The number of the car and the name of the owner were given by the driver of the machine, and Harris was taken to his home. He was not badly hurt.

Mrs. E. H. Trodax, 4111 East Seventeenth street, was struck by a heavy lumber truck last night at East Fourteenth street and Forty-first avenue, and sustained injuries about the head. She was taken to the emergency hospital and then home.

WHISKEY IS STOLEN.
ST. LOUIS, July 21.—Threat of forty-two barrels of whiskey, valued at approximately $50,000, from the government bonded warehouse at Valley Park, Mo., eighteen miles west of here, has been discovered.

'Swede' Meyerhoffer, Flier, Meets Death

SAN JOSE, July 21.—"Swede" Meyerhoffer, one of the oldest fliers in the United States and considered one of the best, was killed in an aviation accident near Alturas, according to word received in this city by W. G. Barton from the Redwood city aviation field.

Hartman was manager of the Scouts' meet given here Saturday and Sunday. Meyerhoffer is said to have been of noble birth, relinquishing a title upon leaving Sweden for America.

Bay to Entertain 1500 Midshipmen

A meeting of the mayors of Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda and San Francisco and representatives of the Chambers of Commerce in those cities, was held this morning with details for the reception of the 1500 midshipmen who will arrive soon from Annapolis. The young naval men are out on a practice cruise. They comprise the three senior classes. The cities about the bay will join in the welcome and reception to them.

SECOND STORY THIEVES STEAL GOLD AND JEWELS

Porch climbers secured loot worth several hundred dollars last night at the home of Mrs. W. H. Byington, 456 Jean street. It is believed by the police that the crooks operated with their own extension ladder. The marks of two iron prongs, intended to hold the ladder from slipping, were clearly defined in the lawn at the Byington home this morning. Included in the loot was a valuable necklace of Chinese gold and several diamonds.

Thieves with a penchant for sporting goods entered the home of Samuel Moss, 319 Thirty-fourth street, and stole a camera, a revolver and a large quantity of outing equipment. The house was entered by a pass key.

Four burglars entered the plan of the Buffalo Brewing Company, 311 Cypress street, and stole several cases of beer. They smashed through a rear window and carried out several cases of the malt liquor. Suddenly they had no car, according to the theory of the police, so they hid the plunder in some brush near the plant. The cases were missing this morning and the trail of the burglars was followed until their cache was found.

Mercantile Credit Men to See New Bill

Collection agencies will be placed under control of the State Banking Commission or the real estate commission if a bill submitted to the California Association of Mercantile Agencies to be held in the Hotel Oakland here next week, is approved and passed by the legislature. W. E. Dean of Oakland, secretary, said the bill would be introduced at the next session of the legislature.

Justice William H. Waste, of the appellate court, will be the principal speaker. Other speakers will be Max Hargrave, president of the Rotary club, William J. Hayes, Oakland referee in bankruptcy, Ezra Decoto, district attorney of Alameda county, Clarence Morris, speaker pro tempore of the state legislature, and Superior Judge James G. Quinn of Alameda county.

AMADOR FOLK TO PICNIC.

MOTION PICTURE VISITORS WILL BE SHOWN CITY

A special committee of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce appointed by President W. D. Cole met this afternoon to discuss plans for the entertainment of the motion picture producers and stars to be in this city next Monday.

It was planned to take the visitors to all the points of interest possible for them to visit. A sub-committee of the New Industries committee was named by Chairman John W. Phillips to take the producers on a automobile ride around Oakland in the morning. This sub-committee was charged particularly with the task of pointing out to the producers possible sites for studios and also "locations" for feature plays in this locality.

TO BID FOR COMPANIES.
Large motion picture producers frequently send companies consisting of from 75 to 100 persons on special trains to Northern California to get background for pictures and it is the plan of the sub-committee that as many as possible of these companies be attracted to Oakland.

Special invitations from the committee were wired to the producers, who are Louis B. Mayer, Mayer's studio, the general chairman, B. E. Shapiro, F. A. Mac Hugh, John W. Phillips, Eugene Bowles, Milton Mazor, John E. Mauerhan, W. W. Chapin, E. A. Vandewater, Fred Hunter, C. W. Foy, E. Crawford, N. B. Campbell, W. Sage, W. H. Davenport.

The official program for the day is as follows:
10:30 a. m.—Arrival of stars at Southern Pacific station, where they will be met by reception committee of Oakland business men.
11:30 a. m.—Luncheon at Hotel Oakland.
12:30 p. m.—Parade forms at 30th and Broadway and proceeds to T. & D. theater.
1 p. m.—Public reception at T. & D. theater.
2 p. m.—Parade reforms and proceeds to Oakland baseball park.
3:15 p. m.—Baseball game between Oaks and Stars led by Ben Turpin and Charlie McHugh.
5:45 p. m.—Aerial battle by fleet of airplanes.
6 p. m.—Banquet to the stars by business men in Ivory room, Hotel Oakland.
8 p. m.—Public reception on stage of T. & D. theater.
10:30 p. m.—Guests depart for homes.

RIGHT TO GET DRUNK IN OWN HOME STANDS

BERKELEY, July 21.—The inalienable right of a man to get drunk in his own home was recognized by the Berkeley police today when they found John Candias, student, of 1015 University avenue, lying sprawled out on the floor of his sitting room, but refused to arrest him until Candias arose and followed the regiment of blue-coats, which had paraded before his astonished vision, down the street past quivering telephone posts and gesticulating fire hydrants.

A neighbor saw Candias sprawled on the floor of his front room as if ill and notified the police. Thinking that the man might have been the victim of thugs or robbers, a police squad rushed to the scene only to find Candias recovering from a spree, bleary eyed and surprised.

The police held a consultation and decided they had no right to arrest Candias for being drunk in his own home as long as he raised no disturbance. They started to leave. But the myriads of brass buttons that flickered and glittered before the eyes, the apparently endless procession of blue-coated giants that paraded between him and the smiling chandeliers had hypnotized Candias and he pursued the officers down the street. Once out on the street the 18th amendment superseded inalienable rights and Candias was plucked firmly by two big policemen who lodged him in jail.

PAINT FIRM ORGANIZATION.
A plant in Oakland to manufacture paint for the city of Oakland is being organized by the Holding Corporation which has filed incorporation papers with County Clerk Gross. The concern is capitalized at $24,000. Three directors, each of whom has paraded $8000, are John R. MacLean, 2287 Park Boulevard; Charles C. McMullin, 2440 Evans avenue, and George M. Chapman, 442 Haight street, Alameda.

FRANKFURTERS PROFITABLE.
NEW YORK, July 21.—How much can be made in the frankfurter business at Coney Island, known when Mrs. Rachel Larcach, who lives in a bungalow at Coney Island, asked $75 a week alimony of her husband, Elie Larcach, who sells "hot dogs" at the resort.

Employers Raising Fund to Fight; Strikers Claim Gains

Five thousand dollars was voted by 145 members of the Retail Meat Dealers' Association last night, at the Odd Fellows' hall, to fight the demands of the Butchers' Union for a $50 a week minimum wage, and $1000 was donated to the fund by the San Francisco Butchers' Board of Trade, J. B. Muir, the secretary, said today.

Butchers' Union, No. 120, today announced that three downtown markets had signed the agreement to pay the $50 a week minimum wage, bringing the total number of shops signed to date up to 75 and the number of men returned to work under union conditions to 160. No increase in the price of meat will result from the pay raise, the meat dealers say.

STRIKERS CLAIM GAINS.
O. H. Somers, manager of the Ross Market; R. Detmer, of the Superior Market; and J. J. Smith, of the Victory Market, all admitted that they had taken back their men and said that they would not raise prices. Somers said that about 70 shops have signed with the union. J. W. Corbett, business representative of the Butchers' Union, said that the men in a mass meeting last night, decided to stand on their demands.

A. Shapiro, president of the California Retail Meat Dealers' Association, was the principal speaker last night at the employers' meeting. Others who spoke were H. Oswald, president of the San Francisco Butchers' Board of Trade; R. N. Weiss, its secretary, and S. D. Hinch.

EMPLOYERS TALK.
"The union demands are ridiculous and we will not settle with the men on any such terms," said Muir. Last night $5000 was added to our fund. We are advertising all over for men, and with the master butchers themselves working, the shops are getting along as well as could be expected. Only a few shops, which we union 'outlaws' have signed to our agreement."

MERCHANTS GIVE ENDORSEMENT TO RECREATION PARK

Endorsement of the proposed amendment of Oakland city charter whereby this municipality may be enabled to accept and maintain a fifty-acre tract from the national forest service as a municipal recreation park, was the major business transaction by the Merchants' Exchange at its regular meeting last night. This undertaking requires for its adoption legislative authorization by charter amendment, as the territory desired is without Oakland city limits.

It is proposed to maintain a place of recreation for the accommodation of boys and girls and for family groups, the two former of which shall each have separate use of the park for two weeks each year and family groups a four weeks' cutting period annually. Maintenance of the premises will be effected without city expense, it is planned, those occupying it paying a fixed sum proportioned to the time of occupancy. The forest authorities grant the site free of charge, conditioned only upon its use for the purpose designated. The proposed camp lies on the road to Yosemite Valley and close to the Hetchy Valley, Los Angeles has three such parks and all are self-supporting.

Mrs. Jessie Gooch Dies; Illness Brief

Mrs. Jessie Gooch, wife of E. M. Gooch, western manager of the Standard Education Society of Chicago, died this morning at her residence, 1108 Sixty-ninth avenue. She had been ill three days. Arrangements have not yet been completed for the funeral.

Oakland Marine Wins Gold Medal

Compelling with several crack shots of the Marine Corps, Gunnery Sergeant Charles R. Nordstrom of Oakland was awarded a gold medal for winning a division rifle match held recently at Mare Island.

Sergeant Nordstrom, who is a son of Eric Nordstrom of 3440 Harrison avenue, Oakland, enlisted in the Marine Corps at San Francisco in January, 1910.

HIS WORK IS A REAL PLEASURE TO HIM

Mr. Sharp, who was formerly and for thirty-five years in railroad service and at one time yardmaster for the Santa Fe at Phoenix, Arizona, is now proprietor of the Merchants' Express Co. and is widely known.

"In 1907," said Mr. Sharp, "after I had suffered for a long time from indigestion, I got into an extremely nervous condition. I was restless and irritable and for gloomy and capricious. I had no appetite and when I did eat I bloated me up with gas and caused sharp pains in the pit of my stomach. I lost my sleep and my kind but in spite of it all kept getting worse. Finally I got so weak that I could not get out of bed. I was just a mass of misery and I was just a mass of misery."

BANKER'S FRIENDS ELATED

"Twelve years ago I became afflicted with stomach trouble which steadily became worse. I frequently became prostrated with colic attacks and bloating. My doctors wanted to operate for gall stones. I wished to avoid an operation and on advice of a friend tried Mayr's Wonderful Remedy with excellent results as since taking it about 3 years ago my trouble has entirely disappeared. It removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allows the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convulse or money refunded at all drugists.—Advertisement."

AGNEW APPEAL TO BE HEARD ON AUGUST 17

Hearing of the appeal of Inspector Lou F. Agnew from the order of Commissioner Morse dismissing him in connection with the disappearance of $750 worth of drugs, will commence before the Civil Service Board on August 17.

The date was set last night at a meeting of the board. Agnew was represented by Captain of Inspectors Walter J. Petrasen. Petrasen announced he is as much interested in the case as the inspector, having been charged jointly with Agnew with having gully knowledge of the disappearance of the cocaine and morphine.

The delay in the hearing was caused by the desire of the board to have a full membership present. Colonel Ralph J. Faneuf is expected to return in time.
